

EVOLUTION OF THE CANADIAN RED ENSIGN

c. 1871

c. 1873

c. 1876

c. 1907

1922

1957

On many versions of the Canadian Red Ensign prior to 1922, the shields composed of the arms of the provinces were often surrounded by branches of maple, oak or laurel, beavers, and crowns.

c. 1871

c. 1873

c. 1873

c. 1876

c. 1876

c. 1907

© Private collection of the Right Reverend D. Ralph Spence, Bishop of Niagara
Photos: Ray Peterkin

Canadian Heritage Patrimoine canadien

Canada