What we do

ESDC develops economic and social policies and programs that support and improve the well-being of Canadians.

Our core responsibilities

Social development

Increase opportunities for Canadians to participate in their communities.

Pension and benefits

Assist Canadians in maintaining income for retirement and provide financial benefits to surviving spouses, people with disabilities and their families.

Learning, skills development and employment

Help Canadians access post-secondary education, obtain the skills and training to participate in a changing labour market, and provide supports to those who are temporarily unemployed.

Working conditions and workplace relations

Promote safe, healthy, fair and inclusive work conditions and cooperative workplace relations.

Information and service delivery

Deliver a wide range of federal programs and services and information, including on behalf of other government departments.
