Instructions for Notetakers

- Notes should capture key points, in point form.
- Do not attribute comments to a particular speaker. However, capture remarks that are particularly compelling or insightful as verbatim quotes.
- Have the Table Facilitator review the notes and add any key points that may have been missed.
- At the end of the session, groups will be asked to report back on some of the “Aha! Moments” from their conversations.
- Notes can be taken on a tablet or laptop or handwritten (if handwritten, please make sure they are legible).
- At the end of the consultation, submit your notes to the consultation organizer.
