New calculator for non-resident taxes

Did you know...

That a new online, interactive calculator is available to help determine the current Part XIII tax payable on certain amounts paid or credited to non-residents of Canada? It provides users with the current rate of non-resident tax, and is continuously updated to reflect all changes to new and existing tax treaties. Non-residents of Canada, as well as Canadian payers (such as Canadian financial institutions), businesses, trusts, individuals, and tax practitioners can access the calculator online at www.cra.gc.ca/partxiii-calculator.

Simplify your taxes by taking advantage of the growing number of secure, online services provided by the Canada Revenue Agency. Go to www.cra.gc.ca/electronicsservices.
