Too much mail from the Canada Revenue Agency?

Did you know...

That you can tell the Canada Revenue Agency electronically to stop or restart the mailing of certain communication items to your place of business?

If you prefer not to receive your statement of arrears, statement of interest, statement of interim payments, or remittance envelope, use our Online Requests for Business service to let us know. You can access your up-to-date account information through our My Business Account service. Help us leave a green environmental footprint by reducing paper consumption.

The Online Requests for Business service is available for goods and services tax/harmonized sales tax (GST/HST),* corporation income tax, excise tax and duty, and other levies accounts. You can also use this service to request a payment search, an interest review, and more from the convenience of your computer.

To make an online request, go to www.cra.gc.ca/requests-business. You can also make online requests and access your up-to-date account information at www.cra.gc.ca/mybusinessaccount.

*Except for GST accounts administered by Revenu Québec.
