

Events and seminars: a face-to-face discussion about your taxes

Did you know...

...that you can attend free events and seminars held by the Canada Revenue Agency to help you understand your tax-related obligations or those of your client?

Our popular tax seminars are held across Canada and give individuals, businesses, and their representatives important information about how to manage their tax affairs. Seminars for individuals include such topics as: seniors and income tax, the Child Disability Benefit, and newcomers to Canada. Seminars for businesses include topics such as: registering for a GST/HST account, payroll requirements, T4 slip preparation, and more.

Go to www.cra.gc.ca/events to view and register for upcoming events and seminars in your area.

Seminars are added frequently. Check often!
