

1100
conservation treatments

866
at CCI

115
offsite

119
archaeological treatments

675

professional development activities attended

250

internships completed

592

publications (external + internal)

545

professional development events hosted 920

facility advisory services

289

lectures given upon request

50 YEARS OF SERVICE

Since 1972, the Canadian Conservation Institute (CCI) has been working with heritage professionals in Canada and abroad to ensure heritage collections are preserved and accessible. This infographic illustrates the volume of work done and the scope of many of our core services.

This data was collected using several internal databases, and while extensive, it may not be comprehensive or exact.

287

object analyses and examinations

Top 3 sources of inquiries:

5766
Canadian museums

5499
general public

4188
international community

Canadian Conservation Institute

Institut canadien de conservation

Canada