

1,477,649
images from Canadian museums

1599
CHIN members
as of April 2014

287
institutions reimbursed
for Internet training
from 1996 to 2016

510
contributing institutions

398
institutions reimbursed
for Internet access
from 1996 to 2016

50 YEARS OF SERVICE

The Canadian Heritage Information Network (CHIN) was created to foster sound management of the knowledge and collections developed by Canadian museums. This infographic illustrates the work done since 1972 and how the scope of the services has changed.

This data was collected using various sources over time and may not be comprehensive or exact.

15,044
bilingual entries in Nomenclature for Museum Cataloging

930
of these entries
have images

139
institutions benefited
from the Investment Program

VIRTUAL MUSEUM OF CANADA

200+
bilingual exhibits

577
Community Memories
exhibits

649
partnerships

57,398
records for artists
in Canada

8626
information requests

14,465
comments received

438
institutions
participated

115
exhibits project
managed by CHIN

2001 to 2013

