

Application for Third Party Service Provider

An authorized third party is defined as: “a company, who has duly completed the Canadian Grain Commission application process through provision of the requested information therein, and as such, is recognized on the Canadian Grain Commission website as an authorized third party service provider”.

Pursuant to sections 69 and 70 of the Canada Grain Act, the responsibility of a Canadian Grain Commission-authorized third party service provider is as follows:

- ☐ If the person who caused the grain to be delivered so requests, the authorized third party chosen by the terminal elevator shall sample, inspect and/or weigh the grain received, in a manner authorized by the Canadian Grain Commission.
- ☐ If the operator of the licensed terminal elevator destined to receive grain from a licensed terminal elevator so requests, the authorized third party chosen by the discharging terminal elevator shall sample, inspect and/or weigh the grain discharged, in a manner authorized by the Canadian Grain Commission.

Application Process

To become a Canadian Grain Commission-authorized third party service provider, the company shall complete and submit an application to the Office of the Chief Grain Inspector for Canada:

Canadian Grain Commission

800-303 Main Street
Winnipeg MB R3C 3G8 Canada
Telephone: 204-983-3305
Fax: 204-983-7550

The application package must be received at least one month prior to August 1st of the current crop year and be updated on an annual basis or at any point in time when there is a change in information.

The following information must be included:

- ☒ company name
- ☒ Canadian corporate address and addresses of all Canadian office locations
- ☒ contact information
- ☒ names of staff deemed qualified by the third party service provider herein to sample, grade and/or weigh grain in a manner authorized by the Canadian Grain Commission

Payment by cheque or credit card must be included for the authorized service provider application fee.

Upon receipt of the application package, the Canadian Grain Commission will review the information provided and, prior to granting authorization, meet with the applicant seeking third party authorization. The Canadian Grain Commission review will include, but is not limited to, a request for supporting documentation with respect to information contained within the application (e.g. prior training and work history). In addition, the Canadian Grain Commission will meet with third party service provider applicants as necessary.

A list of successful applicants that have been authorized by the Canadian Grain Commission as third party service providers will be posted on the Canadian Grain Commission website.
