

My Account

View and manage your tax and benefit
information online:

- Check your benefit and credit payments
- View or change your tax return and track your refund
- View uncashed cheques from the CRA
- Change your address and set up direct deposit
- View and print a proof of income statement
- Automatically fill in parts of your tax return
- Receive email notifications and so much more!

Access My Account using one of these options:

- Sign-In Partner
- CRA user ID and password
- Provincial partner (Alberta and British Columbia only)

To register:

1. Enter your social insurance number (SIN), date of birth, line 15000 amount from your most recent income tax and benefit return, and a requested line from your current or previous tax return.
 - *If using a provincial partner, only your SIN is required.
2. Enroll in multi-factor authentication (except when using a BC Services Card).
3. Validate your identity using the document verification service or by entering a CRA security code.
4. Provide an email address.

Once you complete these steps, you will have full access to My Account.
