- the excess part of a direct transfer of a lump sum payment from your RPP to an RRSP, a PRPP or a registered retirement income fund (RRIF) you withdrew and are including on line 129 or 130 and deducting on line 232 of your return for 2018
- contributions made from exempt earnings. See Form RC383, Tax-Exempt Earned Income and Contributions for a Pooled Registered Pension Plan

Part B – Repayments under the HBP and the LLP

If you withdrew funds from your RRSP under the HBP and/or the LLP before 2017 you may have to make a repayment to your RRSP, PRPP, or SPP for 2018. Your 2018 minimum required repayment is shown on your latest notice of assessment or reassessment or your T1028 statement for 2018.

Complete line 7 and/or line 8 if you are designating contributions made from January 1, 2018 to March 1, 2019 to your own RRSP, PRPP, or SPP as a 2018 repayment under the HBP or the LLP. If you designate less than the minimum required amount for 2018, report the difference on line 129 of your return.

Line 14 – Transfers

You may have reported income on line 115, 129, or 130 of your 2018 return. If you transferred certain types of this income to your RRSP, PRPP, and SPP on or before March 1, 2019, you can claim the corresponding amount on line 14, as a transfer. This ensures that the transferred amount does not reduce your RRSP/PRPP deduction limit.

For more information about amounts you can transfer, see Guide T4040.

Note

You may not have reported income you received in a previous year on your return for that year. If reported, that income may have provided you with additional room for which you could contribute to an RRSP, PRPP, or SPP in subsequent years. To ensure your RRSP deduction limit is up to date and maximized, file your return for that year and report the income.

Part F – 2018 contributions to an amateur athlete trust

Complete this section to report qualifying performance income (generally endorsement income, prize money, or income from public appearances received by an amateur athlete) contributed in 2018 to an amateur athlete trust, since this income qualifies as earned income in calculating the RRSP deduction limit of the trust's beneficiary.
