

Section 5 – Net world income information (in CAN$)*

Protected B
when completed

a) Estimated other Canadian-source income (employment and business income, and taxable Canadian capital gains) for which you have to file a Canadian income tax return (including amounts that are exempt under the Canadian Income Tax Act or by virtue of a treaty between Canada and your country of residence). Please give details on a separate sheet, indicating type and amount of income and allowable deductions $ _____

b) Estimated other Canadian-source income (e.g. interest, dividends, net rental, Guaranteed Income Supplement) ... $ _____

c) Will you receive income from sources outside Canada? Yes No
If yes, please indicate the estimated amount for the upcoming year:
(e.g. interest, dividends, pensions, income from employment, social security, other)

d) Estimated income from all sources outside Canada $ _____

* If there are changes to your estimated world income for the year, please file an amended application no later than 30 days after these changes occur.

e) Member of a recognized religious order: Will you be giving your total superannuation, pension, and earned income to the religious order and claiming a vow of perpetual poverty deduction on your Canadian income tax return? Yes No

Section 6 – Non-refundable tax credit information

1. If you are married or have a common-law spouse, are you supporting your spouse? Yes No
A common-law spouse is a person with whom you live in a common-law relationship for any continuous period of at least 12 months, or with whom you live in a common-law relationship and who is the natural or adoptive parent of your child.

2. Are you single, divorced, separated, or widowed, and supporting a relative who, on December 31 of the tax year, will be under 19, except for a relative who has a mental or physical disability*? Yes No
If you claim a person here, you cannot claim that person again in question 3 below.

3. Do you support a disabled* dependent relative who, on December 31 of the tax year, will be 18 years old or older, and who has a physical or mental infirmity? Yes No

4. During the tax year, will you be:
a) A full-time student Yes No
b) A part-time student Yes No
If yes, please give the following information:
• amount of your tuition fees, for courses you will take in the year, to attend a university or a college $ _____
• number of months in the year that you will be enrolled in a qualifying educational program at a Canadian university, college, or a school offering job retraining courses or correspondence courses, or a university outside of Canada

5. Do you have a prolonged disability*? Yes No

* The disability must markedly restrict the activities of daily living and should have lasted or be expected to last for at least 12 consecutive months. If you make a claim for the disability tax credit or a claim for a disabled dependant, you will have to file a completed Form T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate, with your Canadian income tax return.

Section 7 – Dependent information

If you answered yes in questions 1, 2, or 3 of Section 6 above, please give the following information (attach a list if you need more space):

Dependant's name
Residential address
Relationship to you	Date of Birth Y M D		Nature of disability, if any Estimated annual world income (CAN$)

Section 8 – Certification

I, _____, certify that the information given on this form is, to the best of my knowledge, correct and complete. I understand and agree with the terms outlined in Section 1, Information and terms of agreement.

Non-resident's signature

Date

Note
If you are signing for the applicant, you have to include a copy of the power of attorney document with this application.

Personal information is collected under the Income Tax Act and is used to verify compliance with obligations related to withholding, remitting and reporting of Part XIII tax. It may also be used for any other purpose related to the administration or enforcement of the Act such as compliance and collection activities. It may be shared or verified with other federal, provincial, territorial or foreign government institutions to the extent authorized by law. Failure to provide this information may result in interest payable, and, or penalties. Personal information is protected under the Privacy Act and individuals have a right to file a complaint with the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding our handling of their information. Within the limitations set out in the Privacy Act, individuals have a right of access to, or correction of their personal information. Personal information is described in CRA PPU 094.