Information to help you complete this form

1. Use this form to request relief from penalties and interest only. You cannot use this form for relief of tax.
2. Complete one form for each taxpayer. If completing this form by hand, please print clearly.
3. For more information on cancelling or waiving penalties and interest, go to canada.ca/taxpayer-relief, or see Information Circular IC07-1R1, Taxpayer Relief Provisions or GST/HST memorandum 16-3 Cancellation or Waiver of Penalties and/or Interest, if applicable. You may also call 1-800-959-8281 (individual enquiries) or 1-800-959-5525 (business and self-employed enquiries).
4. Taxpayers, registrants or their authorized representatives can submit their completed requests and supporting documents electronically at canada.ca/cra-submit-documents-online or by mail to the designated office listed later in this document.

Authorization

A representative must have the proper authorization. For individuals and trusts, use form T1013, Authorizing or Cancelling a Representative. For businesses, use form RC59, Business Consent. For the owner of a Non-Resident tax account, use form RC95, Authorizing or Cancelling a Representative for a Non-Resident Tax Account. You can find these forms at canada.ca/cra-forms.

Supporting documents

Submit all relevant documents that support your request for relief from penalties and interest. Include copies of any correspondence sent to you by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) (notices, statements, letters, etc.) that show the penalties and interest charged to your account.

Depending on the reason for your request, some examples of supporting documents have been provided in the table below. Note that this list is not exhaustive.

Note: You can submit copies of the original supporting documentation.

Reason	Examples	Supporting documents

Glossary:

- Financial hardship:

- For an individual, financial hardship refers to a prolonged inability to provide basic necessities such as food, medical care, transportation, or accommodation.
- For a business, financial hardship refers to situations when the continuity of business operations, the employees' jobs, and the welfare of the community as a whole are jeopardized.

- Second review: Request to reconsider a previous decision.

- Representative: A representative is a person or business that you authorize to deal with the CRA for you. This person could be your spouse or common-law partner, other family member, friend, or accountant.

You are the legal representative of a deceased person if you are in one of the following situations:

- You are named as the executor in the will;
- You are appointed as the administrator of the estate by a court;
- You are the liquidator for an estate in Quebec;
- You are requesting to be the deceased's representative by completing an Affidavit form for intestate situations (when there is no will or other legal documents).
