

Children's Special Allowances

Do not use this area.

An agency can use this form to apply for or to cancel payments for the children's special allowances (CSA). A separate form is needed for each child. The agency should fill out this form as soon as possible after a child starts or stops being maintained by the agency to minimize any financial hardship to the child's caregiver. For more information, see the back of this form.

Agencies can file applications and cancellations electronically. For more information on filing electronically, go to canada.ca/cra-csa, then select "CSA on the Net".

General informationWhat are the children's special allowances?

Children's special allowances (CSA) are non-taxable amounts paid monthly to agencies that maintain children under 18 years of age who reside in Canada. A child is considered to be maintained by an agency if, at the end of the month, the child is dependent on it for their care, maintenance, education, training, and advancement to a greater extent than any other agency or individual. This also applies to a child who is being maintained by an individual receiving financial assistance from an agency.

The monthly amount payable for each child is equal to the maximum monthly amount of the Canada child benefit. The CSA payment may also include the child disability benefit for children who are eligible for the disability tax credit.

We will stop paying the CSA automatically when the child turns 18 years of age.

What is an agency?

The term agency applies to:

- federal, provincial, and territorial departments
- agencies appointed by a province or territory for the protection and maintenance of children
- group foster homes and institutions
- institutions licensed or otherwise approved by a province or territory to have custody and maintenance of children

If an agency does not have a business number, it must provide proof (original or certified copy) that it is licensed or approved to have the custody or maintenance of children.

When will payments start?

We usually make CSA payments to the agency that maintains the child. However, payments may be paid directly to a foster parent at the agency's request. In this situation, fill out Part 6.

On approval, CSA payments will start the month after the month that the child starts to be maintained by the agency and all of the eligibility conditions have been met.

We only make retroactive payments for a period of up to 11 months preceding the month we receive an application.
