Marital Status Change

Is this form for you?

Use this form to tell us of a change in your marital status. You can also change your marital status using MyCRA or MyBenefits CRA mobile app at canada.ca/cra-mobile-apps. My Account at canada.ca/my-cra-account, or by calling 1-800-387-1193. In some situations, you may be eligible for additional child and family benefits. For more information, see page 3 of this form.

You must tell us by the end of the month following the month in which your status changed. However, do not tell us of your separation until you have been separated for more than 90 consecutive days.

Step 3 – Your new marital status

Select the box that applies to your new status (select only one box):

☐ Married – you are legally married to someone.

☐ Living common-law – you are living in a conjugal relationship with someone to whom you are not married and to whom at least one of the following situations applies. They:
  • have been living with you for at least 12 continuous months. This includes any period you were separated for less than 90 days because of a breakdown in your relationship
  • are the parent of your child by birth or adoption
  • have custody and control of your child (or had custody and control immediately before the child turned 19 years of age) and your child is wholly dependent on that person for support

☐ Separated – you have been living apart from your spouse or common-law partner because of a breakdown in the relationship for a period of at least 90 days and you have not reconciled.

Once you have been separated for 90 days, the effective day of your separated status is the date you started living apart.

☐ Divorced – you were married and are now legally divorced.

☐ Widowed – your spouse or common-law partner is deceased.

☐ Single – you are single and none of the above apply.

Enter the date this status began:

[ ] [ ] [ ] Year  [ ] [ ] [ ] Month  [ ] [ ] [ ] Day

If you selected married or living common-law, enter your spouse's or common-law partner's information:

Personal information (including the SIN) is collected for the purposes of the administration or enforcement of the Income Tax Act and related programs and activities including administering tax, benefits, audit, compliance, and collection. The information collected may be used or disclosed for purposes of other federal acts that provide for the imposition and collection of a tax or duty. It may also be disclosed to other federal, provincial, territorial or foreign government institutions to the extent authorized by law. Failure to provide this information may result in interest payable, penalties or other actions. Under the Privacy Act, individuals have the right to access their personal information, request correction, or file a complaint to the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding the handling of the individual’s personal information. Refer to Personal Information Bank CRA PPU 005, CRA PPU 063, and CRA PPU 140 on Info Source at canada.ca/cra-info-source.
What happens after you send this form?
When we get notification of your change in marital status, we will recalculate your child and family benefits and credits taking into consideration all of the following:

- your new marital status
- your new adjusted family net income
- your province or territory of residence

Note
You cannot use this form to make a correction to a previously reported marital status change. Corrections must be sent in writing to your tax centre.
Your new marital status may change the number of children in your care (for example, a new child in your care or a new shared custody arrangement). You will need to let us know, as this may affect your child and family benefits and credits. For more information, go to canada.ca/canada-child-benefit or see Booklet T4114, Canada Child Benefit.
We may validate your marital status at a later date.

When will your payments be adjusted?
Your Canada child benefit (CCB) and/or goods and services tax/harmonized sales tax (GST/HST) credit payments will be adjusted the month following the month that your marital status changed.
For more information about the CCB, go to canada.ca/canada-child-benefit or see Booklet T4114, Canada Child Benefit.
For more information about the GST/HST credit, go to canada.ca/gst-hst-credit or see Guide RC4210, GST/HST Credit.

Direct deposit
Direct deposit is a fast, convenient, reliable, and secure way to get your CRA payments directly into your account at a financial institution in Canada. To sign up for direct deposit or to update your banking information, go to canada.ca/cra-direct-deposit.
