Amount 4A _____ × 60% =			_____ 4B
Qualified BC labour expenditure claimed in all previous tax years	420	_____
Production cost limit (amount 4B minus line 420)	480	_____

75% of the cost of producing the BC portion of the production must be payable for goods or services provided in BC by BC-based individuals or BC-based corporations. For documentaries, 75% of the cost of producing the BC portion of the production must be payable for goods or services provided by BC-based individuals or BC-based corporations.

Part 5 – Qualified BC labour expenditure

BC labour expenditure for the tax year includes amounts:

- incurred after the final script stage to the end of the post-production stage
- incurred in the tax year or previous tax year and that did not form part of the claimant's BC labour expenditure for the previous tax year
- paid during the tax year or within 60 days after the end of the tax year
- that are directly attributable to the production
- that are for services provided by BC-based individuals

A BC-based individual is defined as an individual who was resident in BC on December 31 of the year preceding the end of the tax year for which the corporation claims this credit.

BC labour expenditure does not include amounts paid that are included in a BC interactive digital media tax credit claim.

BC labour expenditure for the tax year is the total of:

Salary or wages paid that are directly attributable to the production	505	_____
Remuneration directly attributable to the production paid to:

Total BC labour expenditure for the tax year (amount 5D minus line 550)

Qualified BC labour expenditure for the tax year (the lesser of line 480 in Part 4 and amount 5E)

* In previous versions of this form, amount 5E would have been amount Q.

Part 6 – Eligible BC scriptwriting expenditure

You can claim the scriptwriting tax credit only if principal photography of the production began in the current tax year.

BC scriptwriting expenditure for the tax year includes amounts:

- incurred in respect of the production after the later of February 20, 2018 and the date that is 2 years before the date principal photography of the production begins, and before the end of the final script stage of production of the production
- paid by the corporation no later than 60 days after the end of the tax year in which principal photography of the production begins
- directly attributable to the development of script material for the production
- incurred for services provided by scriptwriters who are BC-based individuals

BC scriptwriting expenditure does not include amounts paid that are included in a BC interactive digital media tax credit claim.

BC scriptwriting expenditure for the tax year is the total of:

Salary or wages paid to scriptwriters that are directly attributable to the development of script material for the production . . .	860	_____

Scriptwriting tax credit (amount 9C multiplied by 35%) 905 _____
 (enter the amount from line 905 at amount 14B in Part 14)

Part 10 – Regional tax credit

To be eligible for a regional tax credit, principal photography of the production, or at least three of the qualifying episodes of a series (see note) must be done in BC outside of the designated Vancouver area for a minimum of five days and must be more than 50% of the total number of principal photography days in BC. For animated productions that start key animation after June 26, 2015, claim the regional tax credit on the qualified BC labour expenditure (QBCLE) for the tax year prorated by the BC labour expenditure (BCLE) incurred in BC outside the designated Vancouver area over the BC labour expenditure for the tax year. There is no minimum number or percentage of principal photography days required for animated productions that start key animation after June 26, 2015.

Qualified BC labour expenditure for the tax year (line 590 from Part 5) 10A

Qualified BC labour expenditure related to episodes that do not qualify for the regional tax credit (if this is a series intended for television broadcast) (see note) 690 _____

Qualified BC labour expenditure for the purpose of the regional tax credit calculation (amount 10A minus line 690) ► _____ 10B

For animated productions that start key animation before June 27, 2015, and for live action productions:

Number of principal photography days* outside the designated Vancouver area 695 _____ = 10C

Total number of principal photography days* 700 _____

For animated productions that start key animation after June 26, 2015:

BCLE for the tax year incurred in BC outside the designated Vancouver area 702 _____ = 10D

BCLE for the tax year 704 _____

Prorated qualified BC labour expenditure (amount 10B multiplied by amount 10C or 10D, whichever applies) 10E

Regional tax credit (amount 10E multiplied by 12.5%) 705 _____
 (enter the amount from line 705 at amount 14C in Part 14)

Note

Qualifying episode means an episode of a film or video production that is intended for television broadcast as a series and that comprises a cycle of at least three episodes.

* Principal photography days of the eligible production or qualifying episodes in British Columbia.

Part 11 – Distant location regional tax credit

To be eligible for a distant location regional tax credit, principal photography of the production, or at least three of the qualifying episodes of a series (see note) must be done in BC in a distant location for a minimum of one day and the production must qualify for the regional tax credit in Part 10. For animated productions that start key animation after June 26, 2015, claim the distant location regional tax credit on the QBCLE for the tax year prorated by the BC labour expenditure (BCLE) incurred in a distant location over the BC labour expenditure for the tax year. For animated productions that start key animation after June 26, 2015, there is no minimum number of principal photography days required.

Qualified BC labour expenditure for the tax year (line 590 from Part 5) 11A
 Qualified BC labour expenditure related to episodes that do not qualify for the distant location regional tax credit (if this is a series intended for television broadcast) (see note) 655
 Qualified BC labour expenditure for the purpose of the distant location regional tax credit calculation (amount 11A minus line 655) ▶ 11B

For animated productions that start key animation before June 27, 2015, and for live action productions:

Number of principal photography days* in a distant location 660 = 11C
 Total number of principal photography days* 665

For animated productions that start key animation after June 26, 2015:

BCLE for the tax year incurred in a distant location 667 = 11D
 BCLE for the tax year 669

Prorated qualified BC labour expenditure (amount 11B multiplied by amount 11C or 11D, whichever applies) 11E

Distant location regional tax credit (amount 11E multiplied by 6%) 670
 (enter the amount from line 670 at amount 14D in Part 14)

Note
 The qualifying episodes for the distant location regional tax credit are the same as the qualifying episodes for the regional tax credit.
 * Principal photography days of the eligible production or qualifying episodes in British Columbia.

Part 12 – Film training tax credit

BC labour expenditure paid to BC-based individuals in an approved training program 674
 Any assistance for the training program or the BC-based individuals 678
 Net BC labour expenditure paid to BC-based individuals in an approved training program (line 674 minus line 678) 12A
 Amount 12A × 30% = 12B
 Qualified BC labour expenditure for the tax year (line 590 from Part 5) × 3% = 12C
Film training tax credit (the lesser of amount 12B and amount 12C) 685
 (enter the amount from line 685 at amount 14E in Part 14)

Part 13 – Digital animation, visual effects and post-production tax credit

The DAVE tax credit rate is 16% for productions that start principal photography after September 30, 2016. For productions that start principal photography before October 1, 2016, the DAVE tax credit rate is 17.5%.

Use amount 13A if principal photography for the production started before October 1, 2016.
 Use amount 13B if principal photography for the production started after September 30, 2016.

DAVE tax credit for productions that started principal photography before October 1, 2016 × 17.5% = 13A
 line 755 from Part 7

DAVE tax credit for productions that started principal photography after September 30, 2016 × 16% = 13B
 line 755 from Part 7

Digital animation, visual effects and post-production tax credit (amount 13A or amount 13B, whichever applies) 760
 (enter the amount from line 760 at amount 14F in Part 14)

Part 14 – British Columbia film and television tax credit

Basic tax credit (line 620 from Part 8)	_____	14A
Scriptwriting tax credit (line 905 from Part 9)	_____	14B
Regional tax credit (line 705 from Part 10)	_____	14C
Distant location regional tax credit (line 670 from Part 11)	_____	14D
Film training tax credit (line 685 from Part 12)	_____	14E
Digital animation, visual effects and post-production tax credit (line 760 from Part 13)	_____	14F
