

Designation of a Property as a Principal Residence by the Legal Representative of a Deceased Individual

Tax year

Use this form to designate a property as a principal residence. You must also complete the "Principal residence designation" section of Schedule 3 of the deceased person for the year if one of the following applies to the deceased person:

- they disposed of, or was considered to have disposed of, their principal residence, or any part of it
- they granted someone an option to buy their principal residence, or any part of it

Note

If the deceased person was not a resident of Canada for the entire time they owned the designated property, call 1-800-959-8281. The period of non-residence may reduce or eliminate the availability of the principal residence exemption.

For more information about designating a principal residence and what qualifies as a principal residence, see Income Tax Folio S1-F3-C2, Principal Residence, or the "Principal residence" chapter in Guide T4037, Capital Gains.

You can only designate one property as the deceased's principal residence for any specific year. However, where the principal residence is sold and another one bought (or where the deceased moved to another of their properties) in the same year, the "plus one" rule in calculating the principal residence exemption amount will allow you to claim the principal residence exemption for both properties for that year even though you can only designate one property as the deceased's principal residence.

For dispositions that occurred after October 2, 2016, if the deceased was a non-resident throughout the taxation year in which the property was purchased or acquired, the "plus 1" rule does not apply.

If you ticked box 1 at line 179 of Schedule 3, you only need to complete the first page of this form. You do not need to report any gain amount on Schedule 3 for this property.

If you are filing electronically, keep this form in case we ask to see it later. If you are filing a paper return, you must complete, sign, and attach this form to your return.

Description of property

Provide the information requested below for the property disposed of in the tax year. Complete a separate form for each disposition.

Designation

I, _____, the legal representative for the Estate of the Late _____, hereby (print your name) (Deceased's name)

designate the property described above to have been the principal residence of the deceased person for the following tax years ending after the acquisition date:

- After 1981 1
- After 1971 and before 1982 + 2

Total number of years designated (line 1 plus line 2) 9956 = 3

For those years after 1981, I also confirm that neither the deceased person, nor their spouse or common-law partner (who was not separated and living apart from the deceased person throughout the year under a judicial separation or written separation agreement), nor any of the deceased person's children (who were under 18 and unmarried or not in a common-law partnership throughout the year) designated any other property as a principal residence. For any tax year after 1981 for which the deceased person designated the property and throughout which they were under 18 and unmarried or not in a common-law partnership, I also confirm that neither the deceased person's mother, father, nor any of their brothers and sisters (who were under 18 and unmarried or not in a common-law partnership throughout the year) designated any other property as a principal residence.

For those years before 1982, I confirm that the deceased person has not designated any other property as their principal residence.

Note
 If the property was designated as a principal residence for the purpose of filing Form T664 or T664(Seniors), the legal representative has to include those previously designated tax years as part of the deceased person's principal residence designation.

Definitions

For the purpose of this form, the acquisition date is the date on which the deceased person last acquired or reacquired the property, or December 31, 1971, whichever is later. However, if the deceased person or their spouse or common-law partner filed Form T664 or T664(Seniors), the deceased person or their spouse or common-law partner are not considered to have disposed of and immediately reacquired the property as a result of that election.

The term spouse used throughout this form applies to a person to whom the deceased person was legally married. For 1993 to 2000, a spouse included a common-law spouse. For 2001 and future years, the reference to spouse is replaced with spouse or common-law partner as defined in the "Definitions" section in Guide T4037, Capital Gains.

Note
 If the deceased person made an election to have their same-sex partner considered their common-law partner for 1998, 1999, and/or 2000, then, for those years, the deceased person's common-law partner also can not designate a different housing unit as their principal residence.

Information needed to calculate the capital gain

If you ticked either box 2 or 3 at line 179 of Schedule 3, you must complete the remainder of this form that is applicable to the deceased person's situation.

If the deceased person disposed of, or was considered to have disposed of, a property for which the deceased person or the deceased person's spouse or common-law partner filed Form T664 or T664(Seniors), Election to Report a Capital Gain on Property Owned at the End of February 22, 1994, use this form to calculate the capital gain for the year if:

- the property was the deceased person's principal residence for 1994; or
- you are designating the property in this form as the deceased person's principal residence for any tax year.

The deceased person may be entitled to a reduction as a result of the capital gains election. To calculate this reduction, use Form T2091(IND)-WS, Principal Residence Worksheet. To get this form, go to canada.ca/get-cra-forms or call 1-800-959-8281.
