1. Basic personal amount

Every person employed in the Northwest Territories and every pensioner residing in the Northwest Territories can claim this amount. If you will have more than one employer or payer at the same time in 2020, see "More than one employer or payer at the same time" on page 2.

15,093

2. Age amount

If you will be 65 or older on December 31, 2020, and your net income from all sources will be $38,508 or less, enter $7,382. If your net income for the year will be between $38,508 and $87,722 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1NT-WS, Worksheet for the Northwest Territories 2020 Personal Tax Credits Return, and fill in the appropriate section.

3. Pension income amount

If you will receive regular pension payments from a pension plan or fund (excluding Canada Pension Plan, Quebec Pension Plan, Old Age Security, or Guaranteed Income Supplement payments), enter $1,000, or your estimated annual pension income, whichever is less.

4. Tuition and education amounts (full time and part time)

If you are a student enrolled at a university, college, or educational institution certified by Employment and Social Development Canada, and you will pay more than $100 per institution in tuition fees, fill in this section. If you are enrolled full time, or if you have a mental or physical disability and are enrolled part time, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay, plus $400 for each month that you will be enrolled. If you are enrolled part time and do not have a mental or physical disability, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay, plus $120 for each month that you will be enrolled part time.

5. Disability amount

If you will claim the disability amount on your income tax and benefit return by using Form T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate, enter $12,239.

6. Spouse or common-law partner amount

If you are supporting your spouse or common-law partner who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be less than $15,093, enter the difference between $15,093 and their estimated net income. If their net income for the year will be $15,093 or more, you cannot claim this amount.

7. Amount for an eligible dependant

If you do not have a spouse or common-law partner and you support a dependent relative who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be less than $15,093, enter the difference between $15,093 and their estimated net income. If their net income for the year will be $15,093 or more, you cannot claim this amount.

8. Caregiver amount

If you are taking care of a dependant who lives with you, whose net income for the year will be $17,085 or less, and who is either your or your spouse's or common-law partner's:

- parent or grandparent (aged 65 or older)
- relative (aged 18 or older) who is dependent on you because of an infirmity, enter $5,002

If the dependant's net income for the year will be between $17,085 and $22,087 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1NT-WS and fill in the appropriate section.

9. Amount for infirm dependants age 18 or older

If you are supporting an infirm dependant aged 18 or older who is your or your spouse's or common-law partner's relative, who lives in Canada, and whose net income for the year will be $7,098 or less, enter $5,003. You cannot claim an amount for a dependant you claimed on line 8. If the dependant's net income for the year will be between $7,098 and $12,101 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1NT-WS and fill in the appropriate section.

10. Amounts transferred from your spouse or common-law partner

If your spouse or common-law partner will not use all of their age amount, pension income amount, tuition and education amounts, or disability amount on their income tax and benefit return, enter the unused amount.

11. Amounts transferred from a dependant

If your dependant will not use all of their disability amount on their income tax and benefit return, enter the unused amount. If your or your spouse's or common-law partner's dependent child or grandchild will not use all of their tuition and education amounts on their income tax and benefit return, enter the unused amount.

12. TOTAL CLAIM AMOUNT

Add lines 1 to 11. Your employer or payer will use this amount to determine the amount of your territorial tax deductions.
Filling out the Form TD1NT

Fill out this form only if you are an employee working in the Northwest Territories or a pensioner residing in the Northwest Territories and any of the following apply:

- you have a new employer or payer and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, employment insurance benefits, or any other remuneration
- you want to change amounts you previously claimed (for example, the number of your eligible dependants has changed)
- you want to increase the amount of tax deducted at source

Sign and date it, and give it to your employer or payer.

If you do not fill out Form TD1NT form, your employer or payer will deduct taxes after allowing the basic personal amount only.

More than one employer or payer at the same time

If you have more than one employer or payer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another Form TD1NT for 2020, you cannot claim them again. If your total income from all sources will be more than the personal tax credits you claimed on another Form TD1NT, check this box, enter "0" on line 12 and do not fill in lines 2 to 11.

Total income less than total claim amount

Check this box if your total income for the year from all employers and payers will be less than your total claim amount on line 12. Your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.

Additional tax to be deducted

If you wish to have more tax deducted, fill in "Additional tax to be deducted" on the federal Form TD1.

Reduction in tax deductions

You can ask to have less tax deducted on your income tax and benefit return if you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, charitable donations, and tuition and education amounts carried forward from the previous year). To make this request, fill out Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office. Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.
