

Tuition and Enrolment Certificate – Commuter to the United States

Year: 20 ____

- This form is used to certify eligibility for claiming tuition fees of a student who resided during the whole year in Canada near the border between Canada and the United States and commuted to the United States to attend a university, college, or other educational institution providing courses at a post-secondary school level. This form is also to show the maximum tuition amounts the student can transfer to a designated individual. For more information, see Guide P105, Students and Income Tax, at canada.ca/cra-forms.
Administrators of post-secondary educational institutions can get Information Sheet RC190, Information for Educational Institutions Outside Canada, for details on how to fill out and certify this form. Do not enter the cost of textbooks on this form. Students calculate their provincial or territorial education and textbook amounts (if applicable) based on the number of months indicated in Box B or C below.
Eligible tuition fees paid in respect of the calendar year to any one institution have to be more than $100.

Part 1 – Educational institution's certification

Name of educational institution in the United States
Address
Name of program or course
Student's name

Table with columns A (Session periods), B (Number of months for part-time), and C (Number of months for full-time). Sub-columns include From (Year, Month) and To (Year, Month). Includes a Total row.

I certify that:

- the student was enrolled as a student at this educational institution as described above during the periods indicated
out of the total fees paid for the year, $ _____ is the amount paid for tuition, mandatory ancillary fees that all students have to pay (such as fees for health services or athletics other than student association fees), admission, use of a library or a laboratory, examinations, and for getting a degree or diploma none of the above amount was levied for other things such as transportation, parking, books, supplies, special equipment, meals, lodging, or initiation or entrance fees for professional organizations the total eligible tuition fees indicated above include the eligible tuition fees paid by scholarship income

Part 3 – Student's information

- Fill out Schedule 11, Tuition, Education, and Textbook Amounts to calculate the federal amount you can claim on line 323 of Schedule 1, Federal Tax; the maximum amount you can transfer to a designated individual; and the amount, if any, you can carry forward to a future year.
Also fill out provincial Schedule (S11), if you resided in a province other than Quebec on December 31, to calculate the provincial amount you can claim on line 5856 of Form 428; the maximum amount you can transfer to a designated individual; and the amount, if any, you can carry forward to a future year.
If you want to transfer unused current-year amounts to one designated individual, fill out Part 4 of this form.
Do not send this certificate with your income tax return. Keep the certificate in case we ask to see it. For more details about using this form, see the Information Sheet RC192, Information for Students – Educational Institutions Outside Canada, at canada.ca/cra-forms.

Part 4 – Student's authorization to transfer tuition, education, and textbook amounts

- You can transfer your unused current-year amounts to one designated individual. That individual can be either your spouse or common-law partner, your parent or grandparent, or your spouse's or common-law partner's parent or grandparent. You cannot transfer your unused current-year amounts to your parent or grandparent, or your spouse's or common-law partner's parent or grandparent, if your spouse or common-law partner claims the spouse or common-law partner amount or amounts transferred from your spouse or common-law partner on his/her tax return.
If you transfer unused current-year amounts to your spouse or common-law partner, he or she has to complete federal Schedule 2, Federal Amounts Transferred From Your Spouse or Common-Law Partner, and, if he or she resided in a province or territory other than New Brunswick, Quebec, Ontario or Saskatchewan on December 31, provincial or territorial Schedule (S2), Provincial (or Territorial) Amounts Transferred From Your Spouse or Common-Law Partner.
