

Joint Election for a Trust to be a Qualified Disability Trust

- For the 2016 and subsequent tax years, use this form if the trust is a testamentary trust that arose on the death of a particular individual and is jointly electing with one or more beneficiaries under the trust (referred to as an electing beneficiary) to be a qualified disability trust for the year. Where the trust was a qualified disability trust in a previous tax year and is subject to the recovery tax under paragraph 122(1)(c) of the Income Tax Act (the Act), complete Form T3QDT-WS E, Recovery Tax Worksheet.
- In addition to filing a completed copy of this form with the T3 return of the tax year, the following conditions have to be satisfied for the trust to be a qualified disability trust:
 - the trust must be factually resident in Canada for the trust year (i.e., resident determined without regard to section 94 of the Act);
 - the trust is not subject to the recovery tax for the year;
 - each electing beneficiary must be named as a beneficiary by the particular individual in the instrument under which the trust is created;
 - each electing beneficiary must, for the beneficiary's taxation year in which the trust's year ends, be an individual who is eligible for the disability tax credit (i.e., an individual with a severe and prolonged impairment in physical or mental function and in respect of whom the certification required for the disability tax credit has been filed with the Canada Revenue Agency); and
 - no beneficiary who elects with the trust to be a qualified disability trust for the year can elect with any other trust for the other trust to be a qualified disability trust for the other trust's taxation year that ends in the beneficiary's taxation year.
