

ENTER A WORLD OF INTRIGUE

The Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS) is seeking passionate, goal-oriented professionals who are ready for a challenging career in the advancement of Canada's national security interests. We offer an exciting way of life: one of meaning and impact, dedicated to ensuring Canada's safety, security and prosperity.

Successful candidates are adventurous, resilient and thrive on solving complex problems in an ever-changing environment. They are high-integrity professionals with excellent interpersonal skills, driven to build relationships for strategic advantage.

Candidates must possess the following

- ✓ A valid Canadian passport
- ✓ 4+ years of professional experience
- ✓ The ability to successfully complete security vetting
- ✓ The ability and desire to travel domestically and internationally

Foreign language skills and international work experience are considered assets.

Candidates with a background in business, marketing, finance, or technology are especially desirable.
