Section 1.1 Policy

1.1.01 Policy effective date

The Canadian Forces Integrated Relocation Program (CFIRP) 2009 is effective 1 April, 2009. It represents the Treasury Board's approved policy for CF members on relocation of their Dependants, Household Goods and Effects ((D) HG&E). It also represents the Governor in Council's approved policy for some specific, non-CF members' relocations.

(TB amended 16 September 2014)

1.1.02 Policy statement

The Department will:

- pay for a door-to-door move when authorized to relocate at public expense; and
 - ensure reimbursement of relocation expenses as per the CFIRP policy.

1.1.03
Eligibility application

The following are entitled to relocation benefits under the CFIRP:

- Regular Force members who are posted --- and Reserve Force members who accept a period of Class “B” or “C” service employment as per Chapter 13 --- who are also authorized to move their (D) HG&E from one place of duty to another only when the new residence is at least 40 kilometres closer to the new place of duty than the current residence.

The formula for calculating the distance is as follows:

1. Distance in kilometres between current residence and new place of duty = _____ km.
2. Distance in kilometres between new residence and new place of duty = _____ km.
3. Line 1 minus line 2 = _____ km.

When the difference is 40 km or more, relocation benefits are payable.

- Reserve Force members who are authorized a Return Move, from the place of duty to which they were last moved at public expense for a period of Reserve service, to another place authorized in accordance with Chapter 13, provided the new residence is 40 km or more from the current residence;
- Regular or Reserve Force members who are posted in situations that require that they be moved within the same place of duty under Chapter 11;
- CF members who are eligible to a relocation to their Intended Place of Residence (IPR) on release or transfer from the Regular Force;
- An eligible person as defined in QR&O 209.20; and
- A member who is officially reported as missing, a prisoner of war or interned or detained by a foreign power or declared to be mentally incapacitated. Note that the member’s lawfully appointed agent may act for them.

(Limitation) CF members who enrol or re-enrol, or transfer from the Reserve Force to the Regular Force, and have not successfully completed basic military occupation or trade training or its equivalent for the occupation or trade for which they enroll, re-enroll or transfer are not entitled to relocation benefits under the CFIRP, unless they:

- have graduated from a Canadian military college during their current period of Regular Force service;
- have graduated from a civilian university for which their education was paid by the Canadian Forces during their current period of Regular Force service;
- are a dental, medical or legal officer who has successfully completed basic officer training; or
- are a Chaplain recruit who, by virtue of their ecclesiastical mandate received by their respective religious authority, is authorized to exercise pastoral care.

(TB amended 16 September 2014)

1.1.04 Policy articulation

The CFIRP Policy Document contains information regarding the benefits and applicable funding available to CF members on relocation of (D) HG&E. It provides options to CF members within a policy framework to allow them to choose specific relocation benefits.

CF members will be administered under this CFIRP Directive when:

- their COS date (for Regular Force) or the commencement date of the period of employment (for Reserve Force) is 1 Apr 09 or later; or
- Their COS date (for Regular Force) or the commencement date of the period of employment (for Reserve Force) is prior to 1 Apr 09 and they relocate their (D) HG&E after 1 Oct 09.
- in respect of a member who is releasing or transferring --- or has released or transferred --- from the Regular Force, refer to Chapter 14 to determine applicability of this CFIRP directive or an earlier CFIRP directive as they pertain to entitlements for a move to their IPR.

1.1.05 Policy structure

This policy has been divided into three parts:

- Part 1 - Principles and Commonalities – which contains the principles of the CFIRP policy, the administration of the policy and the relocation entitlements that are common to all moves;
- Part 2 – Core Policies – which contains the main and general entitlements for a typical move within Canada; and
- Part 3 – Special Circumstances – which contains the limitations or enhancements of specific benefits in special circumstances.

Section 1.2 Components

1.2.01 Introduction

This section provides:

- an overview of the three separate yet interdependent sets of entitlements: core, custom, and personalized components from which relocation benefits are paid; and
- the composition of the custom and personalized funding formula.

1.2.02 Components

This table provides a general outline of the benefits and their correspondent funding associated with each component.

Component Content	Core	Custom	Personalized
Benefits	Essential to a relocation.	Enhancements to a relocation.	Non-essential, but attributable to a relocation.
Funding	Each benefit funded directly by the Department	Formula composed of three factors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Accommodation • Transportation • Shipment of HG&E 	Formula composed of a variety of elements (if eligible): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Movement Grant • Posting Allowance/Reserve Relocation Allowance • Incentives (if applicable) • Savings (if applicable)

1.2.04 Custom benefits Custom funding is based on the factors of type of accommodation, distance traveled and family size. The custom funding formula is used by CF members to pay for custom benefits. Custom funding is provided on a “use it or lose it” basis. Once the customized funds have been used, remaining expenditures are from the personalized funds.

1.2.05 Personalized benefits Relocation expenses may be reimbursed from the personalized funds when the expenditure is not specified within the policy but is attributable to the relocation and meets the intent of the CFIRP. These must be reasonable, justifiable, and supported by receipts. The reimbursement of these expenses must not constitute personal gain.

It is within CF members’ discretion to use personalized benefits. The personalized funding formula is subject to Canada Revenue Agency regulations and available for use in three ways:

- it can pay for any personalized benefits;
- it can pay for additional custom benefits beyond what can be covered by the custom funding formula; and
- remaining funds can be cashed out and paid directly to CF members.

When a relocation benefit is reimbursed from personalized funds CF members are not obligated to use the 3rd party service provider.

CF members are responsible for:

- contacting the service provider within 21 days after receiving their posting instruction;
- requesting confirmation in writing of the information given by the service provider;
- forwarding to the CF Relocation Coordinator requests for adjudication;
- understanding their relocation benefits, conditions, and limitations as expenses, resulting from misinterpretation or mistakes will not necessarily be reimbursable;
- considering the information provided, asking for additional clarification, and making timely decisions regarding benefits; and
- facilitating, as much as possible, a door-to-door move by coordinating the following in order to minimize interim lodgings, meals, and miscellaneous (ILM&M) expenses:
 - disposal of accommodation,
 - acquisition of accommodation,
 - occupancy date of new accommodation,
 - report for duty date,
 - shipment of HG&E, and
 - travel to new location.

(TB amended 19 April 2018)

Section 2.3 Change of reporting date

2.3.01 Change of reporting date

When a change of reporting date would facilitate a door-to-door move, it is the CF member’s responsibility to make this request in writing through the appropriate CO. If their request is denied, CF members are required to provide a copy of the denial to the service provider for their file. Failure to request a change in reporting date will result in limiting reimbursement of ILM&M expenditures to the period that would have been reimbursed if a change in reporting date had been authorized.

Section 2.4 Posting cancellation

2.4.01 Entitlements

When a posting is cancelled or postponed for service reasons, CF members are entitled to reimbursement for all actual and reasonable expenses incurred prior to posting cancellation based on the limitations of the CFIRP Policy.

Funding envelopes will be used to reimburse all actual and reasonable expenses incurred in accordance with the policy document. Upon notification of the posting cancellation, the funding envelopes shall not be available and any additional expenses will be reimbursed from Core funding.

2.4.02 Transactions

CF members are to seek advice from the Relocation Consultant prior to making any decisions or transactions.

There shall be no loss or gain from any transaction due to the cancellation of the posting.

Section 2.5 Special Commuting Assistance (SCA)

2.5.01 SCA in lieu of a cost move

CF members may be authorized to receive the SCA in lieu of a Crown-funded relocation of (D) HG&E when posted to a new place of duty to which they are authorized to relocate their (D) HG&E. DCBA may authorize SCA based on a request and the recommendation of the gaining unit Commanding Officer.

2.5.02 Considerations

CF members who:

- wish to continue to reside in their primary residence located outside the geographical boundaries of their new place of duty; or
- are posted to a new place of duty within the same geographical boundaries and are consequently able to relocate 40 kms closer to their new place of duty, shall initially request and must receive the authority of their gaining unit CO.

Section 2.5 Special Commuting Assistance (SCA), continued

2.5.02
Considerations,
 continued

The CO should consider the following:

- the reasonable daily distance that can be traveled to and from the CF member’s primary residence to the new place of duty; and
- CF member’s ability to travel within established time limitations to the new place of duty when recalled.

CF members already in receipt of SCA who continue to meet the requirements of this article and are posted locally to a new place of duty shall retain SCA benefits.

2.5.03
Administrative Support Unit
(ASU)
requirements

CF members who receive authority to reside outside the geographical area may then apply for SCA to their ASU through their gaining unit CO.

The ASU shall submit the CF member’s request, including all supporting documents, to DCBA. The following information shall be included within the submission:

- Cost effectiveness based on a cost comparison of the anticipated tour length and reimbursement of SCA; versus
 - Entitlements provided to CF members when relocated unaccompanied; and
 - Entitlements provided to CF members had the (D) HG&E been relocated using average cost of a move as per the most recent Cost Factors Manual.

2.5.04
Conditions and limitations

CF members who are authorized SCA shall be subject to the following:

- CF members who proceed unaccompanied and are granted an Imposed Restriction (IR) and receive Separation Expense (SE) benefits in respect of any relocation may not later elect SCA in lieu of the IR/SE benefits. SCA may be authorized on subsequent postings that give rise to new relocation entitlements.
- CF members shall waive in writing all relocation benefits and entitlements to the new place of duty as provided by CFIRP;
- SCA shall be authorized for the duration of the posting to the place of duty that gave rise to the entitlement; and
- CF members shall not be eligible for subsequent relocation benefits and entitlements until posted to a new place of duty where the conditions and limitations of CFIRP would again apply.

(TB amended, effective 1 September 2012)

2.5.05 SCA administration

The CF member's ASU shall administer the reimbursement of SCA. SCA is to be charged under the applicable cost move financial code.

Section 2.6 Authority to reside outside geographical boundaries

2.6.01 Shipment of HG&E

Shipment of HG&E is normally authorized from the geographical boundaries of the former place of duty to the geographical boundaries of the new place of duty.

2.6.02 Authority

CF members who wish to reside outside the established geographical boundaries of the new place of duty require the approval of the gaining unit Commanding Officer (CO).

The CO should consider the following:

- the reasonable daily distance that can be traveled to and from the CF member’s primary residence to the new place of duty; and
- CF member’s ability to travel within established time limitations to the new place of duty when recalled.

Subsequent approval of DCBA is required to relocate the (D) HG&E.

2.6.03 Expenses

Expenses associated with the shipment of HG&E will be limited to costs associated with relocating within the established geographical boundaries of the place of duty.

Section 2.7 Selection of 3rd party supplier

2.7.01 Selection of 3rd party supplier

Reimbursement for services provided shall not exceed pre-negotiated rates where the 3rd party supplier has been engaged by the service provider as part of the tendering process.

CF members may choose their own 3rd party suppliers not included in the directory of 3rd party suppliers provided they are at arm’s length.

Section 2.8 Taxable benefits

2.8.01 Taxable benefits

Taxes may apply to some of the benefits paid from any of the three components.

The service provider's book: "IT'S YOUR MOVE," provides a chapter called "Tax Smart," which includes a guide to the tax implications of various relocation expenses; however, Canada Revenue Agency regulations prevail.

Section 2.9 Claims process

2.9.01 Time limitations for payable expenses

For serving members relocating for service reasons, generally, and subject to any specific time limits identified in this directive, there is a two-year time limit from the date that HG&E is authorized to be moved (i.e. move is not or ceases to be prohibited or restricted) for Regular Force personnel, and from the commencement date of the period of employment for Reserve Force personnel, to incur relocation benefits.

For moves to an IPR, there are special time limitations. Read Chapter 14 carefully.

Extensions may be granted in exceptional circumstances. Requests for extensions should be forwarded to DCBA.

(TB amended 16 September 2014)

2.9.02 Advances

CF members --- but not eligible persons --- may be advanced funds (via the Service Provider) to assist in meeting personal expenses incurred in the relocation such as House Hunting Trip (HHT), Destination Inspection Trip (DIT), Travel to New Location (TNL) or Interim Lodgings, Meals and Miscellaneous Expenses (ILM&M).

2.9.03 Expense claim CF members claiming relocation expenses must submit a detailed and itemized account, in the form required to the Service Provider. The account must conform to the following requirements:

- the account must be submitted within 90 days of the CF member's arrival at the new place of duty; and
- the account shall be supported by receipts for each item expense except: kilometric allowance, expenses for taxis under $10, expenses for meals (unless required for claims beyond 21 days and CF member requests 100% of actual expense and miscellaneous incidental expenses), and amounts paid for non-commercial accommodations.

All eligible expenses shall be reimbursed in Canadian funds.

Section 2.9 Claims process, continued

2.9.04 Receipts Where reimbursement for authorized expenses is sought, CF members are expected to submit receipts for the expenses incurred. In extenuating circumstances (except where specified within the CFIRP Policy), when CF members certify that the receipt was lost, accidentally destroyed, or unobtainable, a personal declaration may replace the receipt.

Chapter 5. Interim Lodgings, Meals and Miscellaneous Expenses (ILM&M)

5.01 Purpose This chapter sets out the entitlement to reimbursement for interim lodgings, meals and other miscellaneous expenses, and is subject to certain limitations and enhancements provided for in other chapters in this directive.

This chapter applies to a CF member whose HG&E is packed on or after 19 April 2018.

This entitlement applies when a CF member’s HG&E:

- are being packed and loaded,
- are being unloaded and unpacked, and
- are separated from the members.

A CF member is responsible in accordance with article 2.2.01 to use best efforts to ensure a door to door move in order to minimize the amount of ILM&M expenses. When a change of reporting date would minimize ILM&M expenses, it is the CF member’s responsibility to request the change through their chain of command in accordance with article 2.3.01.

Additional ILM&M expenses will not be reimbursed unless they are incurred in circumstances beyond the CF member’s control.

For example, an occupancy date for the new residence agreed to by a member that requires more than 10 days of interim lodgings, is not considered to be a circumstance beyond the member’s control and will not entitle the member to additional ILM&M benefits.

CF members who are moving from furnished accommodations at origin to furnished accommodations at destination are precluded from this benefit, unless the furnished accommodations are not available on arrival at destination.

Chapter 10. Service Couples

10.01 Purpose This chapter describes relocation benefits applicable to meet the requirements of Service Couples (SCs).

Note: The benefits contained in this Chapter may be amended (limited or enhanced) by specific provisions contained in other chapters in this directive.
(TB amended 16 September 2014)

10.011 Application This chapter only applies in situations where both members of the service couple are Regular force members.
(TB, effective 19 April 2018)

10.02 Terms “CF member” and “service spouse” For the purpose of this Chapter, the relocation benefit relationship between two spouses or between two common law partners --- both of whom are CF members and both of whom are posted from same place of duty to the same new place of duty --- is as follows: the CF member who is authorized to move (D) HG&E is deemed to be the “CF member”, and their spouse or common law partner is deemed to be the “service spouse”.
(TB amended 16 September 2014)

10.03 Co-location principle

The members of a service couple who are posted to the same place of duty are expected to collocate at the same residence.

If the members of a service couple are posted to different places of duty, each member is entitled to be relocated at public expense as if they were a single CF member until such time as they are relocated to the same place of duty.

Once the members are collocated, the members will not be entitled to be relocated at public expense as if they were single members unless:

- the members are posted and each member is entitled to move their HG&E to two separate places of duty; or
- only one member is posted to a new place of duty and all of the following conditions are satisfied:
 - the posted member is posted to a new place of duty and entitled to move HG&E;
 - the career manager of the other member confirms that for at least one year after the posted member’s change of strength date, the other member will not be posted to the same new place of duty; and
 - neither member has received notice that that they will be released or transferred from the Regular Force within 1 year of the posted member’s change of strength date.

In these situations, one or both members, as applicable, may

- relocate with some or all of their (D)HG&E to their new place of duty as though they were relocating as a single CF member;
- request, if entitled, Special Commuting Assistance under Section 2.5 in lieu of moving their HG&E; or
- proceed unaccompanied to the new place of duty in accordance with Section 11.2.

14.1.02 IPR Elections and Time limitations

IPR Elections

A CF member elects an IPR location in writing by completing the CF form issued for that purpose.

An election can be made no earlier than the applicable time limits contained in Section 14.5 (CF members electing an Early Move to IPR).

A CF member can change their IPR location at any time before any expenses related to the IPR location are reimbursed to, or paid on behalf of, a CF member (not including file administration costs).

After any expenses have been paid in relation to the elected IPR location, article 14.1.03 controls changing IPR locations.

Time Limitations - General

CF members may claim the entitlements in this chapter if they have both:

- elected an IPR location; and
- commenced their move to their IPR.

Unless otherwise provided in this Chapter, only IPR related expenses that are incurred within two years after the date of release or transfer are eligible for reimbursement.

(TB amended, 19 April 2018)

Time Limitations - Extensions

DGCB or DCBA may grant an extension for a period of up to one year if he or she determines that any of the following circumstances prevent the member from moving to the IPR within that time limit:

- (a) an illness of or injury to the member or their dependant;
- (b) the vocational rehabilitation or vocational training undertaken by the member;
- (c) the completion of an educational program by the member or their dependant; or
- (d) any other circumstance that delays the move to the IPR and that is beyond the control of the member.

An extension granted by DGCB or DCBA begins on the day after the day on which the time limit ends.

(TB amended, 19 April 2018)

Elections and
Time limitations,
continued

Time Limits – Extensions – Exceptional Circumstances

The Chief of the Defence Staff personally – or the Chief of Military Personnel personally – may grant a further extension for a period of up to three years if he or she determines that there are particularly compelling reasons that prevent the member from moving to the IPR and that relate to

- an illness of or injury to the member or their dependant and confirmed by a medical doctor, or
- an unusual, undeserved or disproportionate hardship for the member that is beyond the member’s control.

This extension shall be granted only if the member submits his or her request for an extension to the Chief of the Defence Staff or the Chief of Military Personnel before the end of the first extension.

(TB, effective 19 April 2018)

Other

When CF members exercise their entitlement to an HHT and fail to relocate (D)HG&E within this time limitation, recovery action will be initiated on HHT expenses. (also see article 14.3.03)

Note. CF members who have changed dependant status since their release from the CF must provide proof of dependant status (e.g. marriage certificate, birth certificate). If common law status is required, CF members must see release section with appropriate documentation for statutory declaration.

14.1.03 IPR reinstatement

If the HG&E has been moved at public expense out of the current residence for the purpose of moving it to an IPR location (other than under article 14.4.02 – IPR election to LTS benefits), then an IPR location cannot be reinstated (i.e. amended).

If the HG&E has not been moved at public expense out of the current residence, or has been moved into local LTS under article 14.4.02, then an IPR location can be reinstated (i.e. amended) but only after the CF member repays all expenses paid in relation to the original IPR location (not in relation to the current residence).

14.1.04
Reimbursement of expenses incurred prior to eligibility

CF members are entitled to payment of relocation expenses incurred prior to meeting the eligibility criteria, once the criteria at art 14.2.03 are met and the member is authorized to elect an IPR location (see article 14.1.02 and Section 14.5).

In these circumstances actual and reasonable expenses will be reimbursed supported by receipts, provided the date of the expense is no more than six years prior to the members release/transfer date or election date, whichever is earlier.

Despite article 14.01, the entitlements will be based on:

- if the HG&E is packed before 16 September 2014, then the CFIRP that was in effect at the time of meeting the eligibility criteria or on 15 September 2014, whichever is earlier, or
- if the HG&E is packed on or after 16 September 2014, this CFIRP policy.

14.1.05 Re-enrol before electing IPR

QR&O article 209.25 (Time Limit) controls.

The effect is that CF members who did not exercise IPR benefits, whose entitlement did not expire, and subsequently re-enroll in – or transfer to – the Regular Force shall have the expiry date of their benefits extended by the corresponding number of days served in their new period of Regular Force service.

14.1.06 Reserve – periods of service

QR&O article 209.25 (Time Limit) controls.

The effect is that CF members who released or transferred from the Regular Force, did not exercise IPR benefits, whose entitlement did not expire, and who serve on periods of Class B or C service shall have the expiry date of their benefits extended by the corresponding number of days served on Class B or C service.

14.1.07 Meaning of Local Move

In this chapter, “local move” means a relocation of 40 kilometres or less, measured using the shortest normal route available to the public, from a person’s current residence to their intended place of residence.

14.1.08 Meaning of move commenced

In this chapter, a move is deemed to have commenced if an expense has been incurred, or a contractual commitment has been made, with respect to any relocation activity for which a benefit is payable to CF members who are transferred from the Regular Force to the Reserve Force under QR&O article 10.04 (Voluntary Transfer to Reserve Force). See also QR&O article 209.20(3).

For example, a CF member who has entered into a listing agreement with a real estate agent to dispose of their current residence has made a contractual commitment to pay a realtor fee upon the sale of their home, and is therefore considered to have commenced their move to their IPR.

CF members proceeding on an HHT/DIT must sign a statement of understanding, acknowledging that any reimbursement of HHT/DIT expenses will be subject to recovery if the member does not relocate to that location. However, there will be no recovery when CF members can demonstrate that they had a reasonable intent to relocate to the HHT/DIT relocation.

Release/transfer while on an unaccompanied move – additional entitlement

A CF member who is both

- on a prohibited move, on a restricted move, or on an unaccompanied status under Section 11.2, and
- being released or transferred from the Regular Force – under any release item except item 1 (Misconduct) – is entitled to the provisions of Art 11.2.05, as though they were on IR status, in order to return to the location of their (D)HG&E.

Once that move is complete, then the CF member can do their IPR move.

This benefit is administered by the local administrative support unit.

14.3.10 Local Move to IPR --- Entitlement & Amount

Generally, there is no entitlement to be paid relocation expenses incurred in respect of a local move to an IPR location. See also QR&O article 209.24 (Local Move).

There are four exceptions. They are described under the “Exception” headings below. Regarding the exceptions:

- A member who qualifies for only one exception is entitled to the amount for that exception; and
- A member who qualifies for more than one exception is entitled to the greater of the amounts (“the best move”).

Exception Type #1:

IF the CF member is:

- a former Regular Force member whose release/transfer date from the Regular Force is prior to 16 September 2014, regardless of the date their move commences; or
- a serving Regular Force member who commenced their move to a local IPR prior to 16 September 2014;

THEN the amount of the entitlement is:

- the amount for a full move, within the limits provided in this directive for all payable benefits.

(TB amended, 19 April 2018)

Exception Type #2:

IF the CF member is:

- required because of their release/transfer from the Regular Force to relocate from an official quarter, single quarters, family housing or any other accommodation under the administration of the Minister of National Defence or another Minister of the Crown;

THEN the amount of the entitlement is:

14.3.10 Local
Move to IPR ---

Exception Type #3:

IF the CF member is

- released/transferred from the Regular Force under Item 3 (Medical) of the table to article 15.01 (Release of Officers and Non-commissioned Members);

THEN the amount of the entitlement is:

- the amount for a full move, within the limits provided in this directive for all payable benefits.

Regarding Exception Type #3, a CF member who is receiving a benefit under CBI 211.015 (Home Modifications Move Benefit) prior to his release (not transfer) date is not entitled to any benefit under this article before the release/transfer date. Once a CF member is released from the CF (i.e. not a member of the Reg, P Res, COATS, Rangers, or Supp Res), the former member is no longer entitled to reimbursement under CBI 211 and becomes entitled under this article for any subsequent eligible CFIRP relocation costs not reimbursed under CBI 211.015.

Exception Type #4:

The Chief of the Defence Staff personally — or the Chief of Military Personnel personally — may approve reimbursement of the relocation expenses for a move to a local IPR, if they determine that there are compassionate reasons that are particularly compelling and that involve:

- an illness of or injury to the former Regular Force member or their dependant; or
- an unusual, undeserved or disproportionate hardship for the eligible person that is beyond the eligible person’s control.

Any reimbursement under Exception Type #4 shall be within the limitations provided in this directive for any payable benefit.
