

CLIMATE ACTION FUND

HOW MUCH FUNDING IS AVAILABLE?

The Climate Action Fund will provide up to $3 million in funding to increase action and awareness on climate change and climate change initiatives driven by, or in support of students, youth, Indigenous peoples and organizations, and small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs).

Successful proposals can receive a maximum of $500,000

all eligible recipients
(except for-profit entities)

$200,000

for-profit entities

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Full-time Canadian students including undergraduate, graduate, or post-doctoral students registered at a Canadian college or university	Canadian youth between the ages of 15 and 30 (inclusive)	Research, academic, and educational institutions	Indigenous peoples and organizations
Canadian small and medium-sized businesses with less than 500 employees	Canadian not-for-profit organizations such as non-governmental organizations, professional, industry, community, and student/youth club associations		Industry and/or trade associations

WHAT TYPE OF PROJECTS ARE ELIGIBLE?

Education, training, and tools • Outreach and promotion • Networking and partnering