

CHLAMYDIA, GONORRHEA and INFECTIOUS SYPHILIS in Canada (2017)

CHLAMYDIA

Trends in chlamydia by age and sex, 2008 - 2017

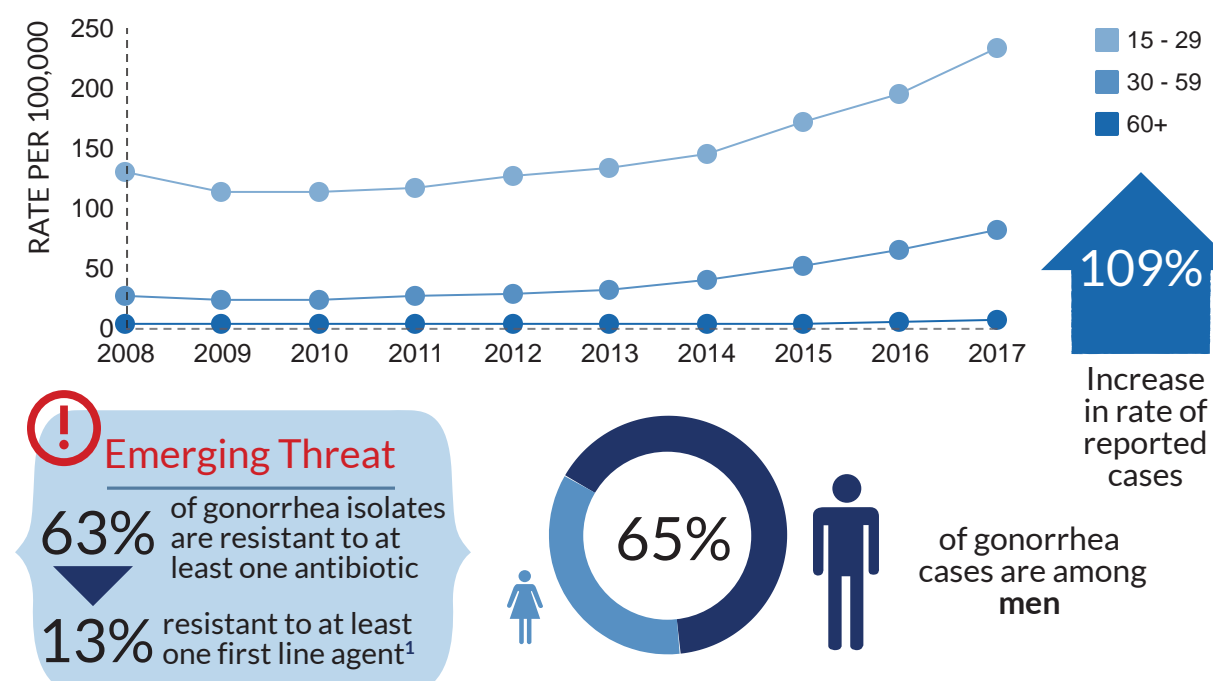

Rates of reported chlamydia cases per 100,000 people (2017)

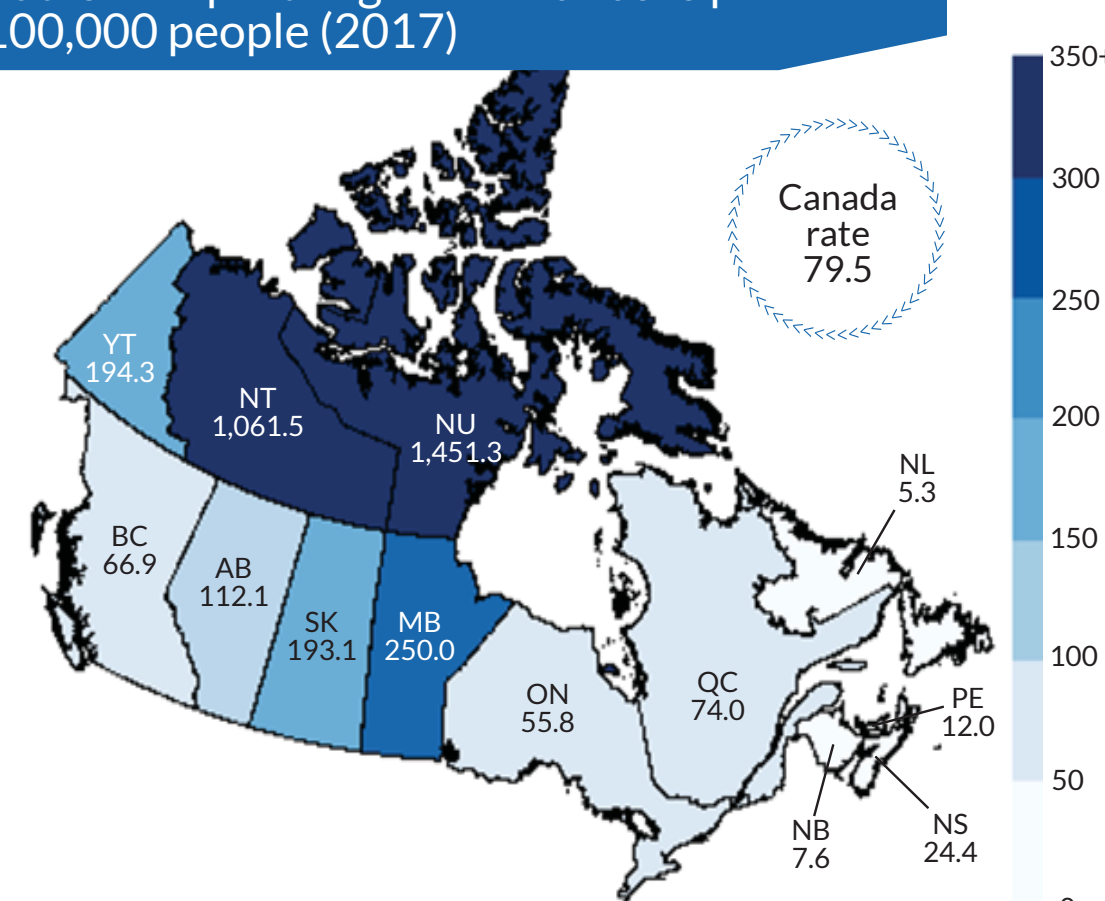

GONORRHEA

Trends in gonorrhea by age and sex, 2008 - 2017

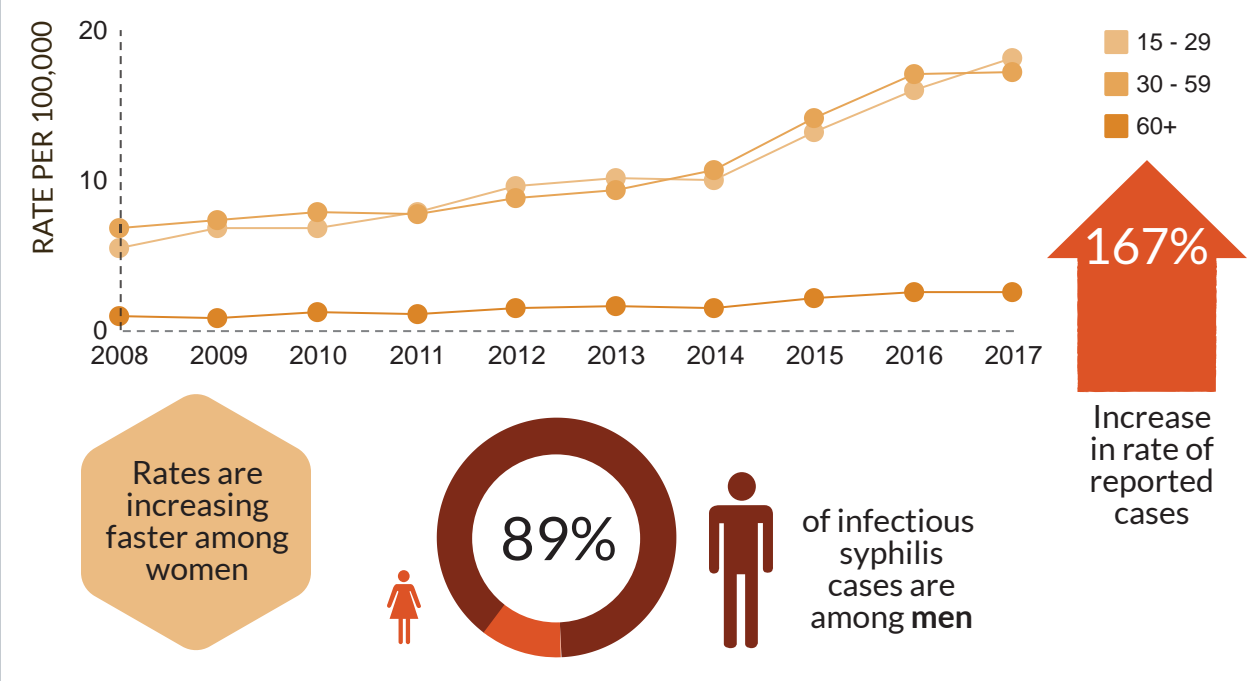

Rates of reported gonorrhea cases per 100,000 people (2017)

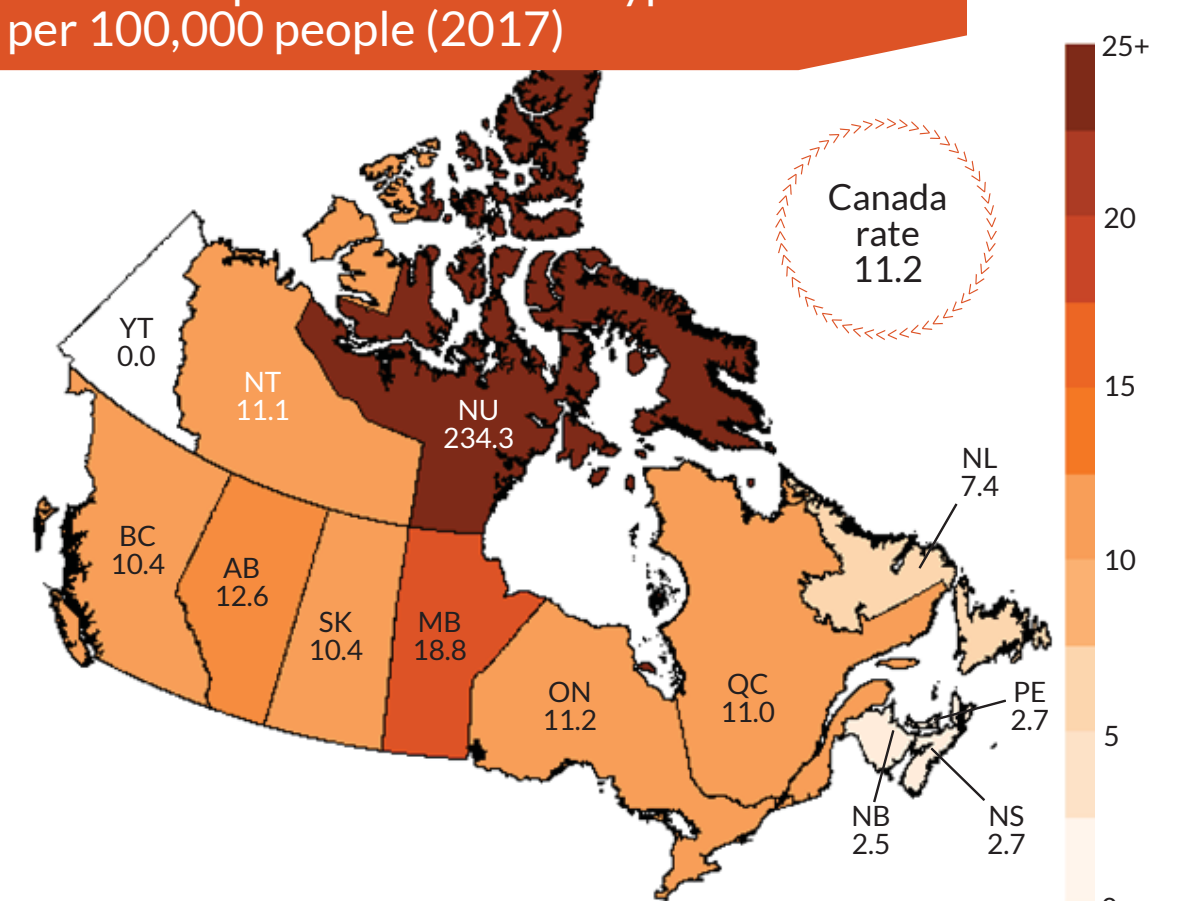

INFECTIOUS SYPHILIS

Trends in infectious syphilis by age and sex, 2008 - 2017

Rates of reported infectious syphilis cases per 100,000 people (2017)

1. First line agent refers to the following treatment; azithromycin (11.7%), cefixime (0.6%) or ceftriaxone (0.5%) - based on 5,290 cultures tested in 2017. Retrieved from the National Surveillance of Antimicrobial Susceptibilities of Neisseria gonorrhoeae Annual Summary 2017
 For more information, please refer to the Report on Sexually Transmitted Infections in Canada: 2017 on Canada.ca or visit Notifiable Disease Online
 © Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Canada, as respected by the Minister of Health, 2019. Cat.: HP40-258/2019E-PDF | ISBN: 978-0-660-32743-3 | Pub.: 190379