

DOCUMENT CHECKLIST

Application Forms for Outside-of-Canada Families of Canadian Victims of Air Disasters

You must print this document, complete it and include it in your application as the cover page.

Gather your documents in order of the checklist and check  each item. Attach small items such as photos with a paper clip, otherwise leave documents unbound. Place all documents in a sealed envelope and follow the steps in the instruction guide. If your documents are not in English or French, you must include the English or French translation with a certified copy of the original document. Applicants should use the services of a certified translator who is in good standing with their provincial or territorial organization and certified to translate documents if in Canada or accredited (officially recognized or authorized) in the country where the translation is being completed if outside Canada. In situations where the translation cannot be provided by a certified translator, it must be accompanied by an affidavit swearing to the accuracy of the translation and the language proficiency of the translator.

Note: If you are unable to provide any of the supporting documentation, please include with your application, a written explanation with full details as to why that documentation is unavailable. Failure to provide supporting documents in certain circumstances may result in the refusal of your application.
