

DOCUMENT CHECKLIST RURAL COMMUNITY IMMIGRATION PILOT

Note: You can apply under the Rural Community Immigration Pilot online. Please consult IRCC's website after you have received your recommendation from the Community for detailed instructions.

This document is available in PDF format only.

Gather your documents in the order of the checklist and  each item.

Upload this form and all other required documents with your online application.

If your documents are not in English or French, you must include the English or French translation with a certified copy of the original document, and an affidavit from the person who completed the translation (if the translation is not provided by a member in good standing of a provincial or territorial organization of translators and interpreters in Canada).

The checklist of required documents is subject to change. Applicants are advised to refer to the application kit on the IRCC website periodically while preparing their application to ensure that they have included all forms and documents listed on the most up-to-date checklist.

Forms and supporting documents (to be completed and submitted by all applicants).

Consult our Web site for specific instructions on how to complete the questions on each of the following forms.

Note: If your application lacks any of the documents listed in this checklist, it will be returned to you. If you are unable to provide any of the requested documentation, please include with your application a written explanation with full details as to why that documentation is unavailable and any documentation that would support your claim. Failure to provide supporting documents in certain circumstances may result in the refusal of your application.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: You have to answer all questions and sign all forms where applicable. When you sign these documents, you are certifying that all information provided therein whether prepared by you or not, is complete and true in all respects.

If you or someone acting on your behalf directly or indirectly submits false documents or misrepresents facts relating to your application for a permanent resident visa:

- Your application may be refused;
- The circumstances of your refusal will be entered into Canada's global immigration database; and
- You and your family members could become inadmissible to Canada for five years under section 40(2) of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act.

It is your responsibility to notify us and provide the relevant supporting documentation if there are changes in the following:

- Family status (e.g. marriage or common-law union, divorce, annulment, legal separation, birth, adoption, death of the principal applicant or any accompanying family member, including grandchildren born to dependent children);
- Education (e.g.: completion of a degree); or
- Mailing address / email address / contact information.

Failure to inform IRCC of these changes will delay processing or may result in the refusal of the application or the exclusion of a family member.
