J CHILD'S PERSONAL INFORMATION

Surname (last name) and given name(s) requested to appear in the passport

Write the child's full name to appear in the passport exactly as it appears on the child's proof of Canadian citizenship or most recent Canadian passport. If you are requesting a passport in a name that is different from the name that appears on the proof of citizenship or most recent Canadian passport, you must provide a Legal Change of Name certificate, Court Order or Adoption Order displaying the child's old and new name. If the child has legally changed their name, you must apply for a new travel document for the child that accurately reflects the child's new name. Additional documents may be requested to verify the child's identity.

All former surnames

All former surname(s) that differ from the surname requested to appear in the passport, including the child's surname at birth must be declared. Please separate your former surnames by a comma. These former surnames will not appear in the passport.

Place of birth

The child's place of birth must be provided on the application form. If you do not wish the child's place of birth to appear in the passport, complete and submit form PPTC 077, Request for a Canadian passport without place of birth, available online at Canada.ca/passport-birthplace.

Date of birth

If the child's proof of citizenship does not show a complete date of birth, the specific year, month and day of the child's birth will be entered as shown on the child's supporting identification. Provide original supporting identification showing that date of birth or copies signed and dated by your guarantor.

Sex

If the sex or gender identifier requested to appear in the passport does not match the submitted proof of Canadian citizenship or the child's latest travel document, complete and submit form PPTC 644, Request – sex or gender identifier – Child Under 16 Years of Age, available online at Canada.ca/passport-change-sex.

Current home address and Mailing address (if different from current home address)

The passport will be delivered to the mailing address provided. If the mailing address changes within 30 days of submitting the child's application, you must notify the Passport Program (see section G).

Email address

Include your email address on the form if you have one, so we can contact you if needed and so you can check the status of your application online. Please note that information sent by email is not transmitted over a secure connection.

Signature

Children under 16 years of age are not required to sign the application form, however children aged 11 to 15 are encouraged to sign section 1. No one other than the child must sign in the signature box in section 1 or in the passport issued to the child once it is received.

K INFORMATION ON APPLICANT AND PROOF OF PARENTAGE

All parents, including all legal guardians are requested (and may be required) to participate in obtaining passport services for the child and to sign the application form. The other parent(s) and legal guardian(s) may be contacted. If you do not know the current whereabouts of the other parent(s) or legal guardian(s), contact the Passport Program (section G).

If the child has more than two (2) parents or legal guardians, provide the required information for each additional parent or legal guardian on a separate sheet of paper and sign and date it before you submit it with the application.

All former surnames

All former surname(s) that differ from the current surname, including the parent's surname at birth must be declared.

Proof of parentage and proof of guardianship

An acceptable proof of parentage document demonstrating the relationship between the child and the parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s) must be submitted. Multiple documents may be required if parentage cannot be established with only one document:

- A detailed birth certificate showing the name(s) of the parent(s) from a Canadian province or territory (also serves as proof of Canadian citizenship, see section M) or from a foreign country in which the child was born, indicating the full name of the parent(s) and the full name of the child, the child's date and place of birth, the issuing authority from the country of birth or their government representative abroad, and the date of registration or issue. However, if the document is in another language (neither English, nor French) the detailed birth certificate in the original language must be translated and submitted along with the translation;
- An adoption order indicating the names of the child and adopting parent(s);
- Proof of guardianship indicating the names of child and the legal guardian(s).

Agreements and legal documents

All documents (including but not limited to any divorce judgement or order) pertaining to the child that refer to custody, decision-making responsibilities, access, parenting time and/or mobility must be submitted with the application. If necessary, contact the applicable issuing authority to obtain all necessary documents. In processing a passport application for a child under 16 years of age, the Passport Program must be vigilant in ensuring that the legal rights of the parents or legal guardian(s) with respect to the child are safeguarded and that the said child is protected from any foreseeable harm. As such, the Passport Program must fulfill its legal obligations in delivering a passport in the name of each child, as is outlined in the Canadian Passport Order and the Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction. These legal obligations may require the Passport Program to request access to all legal documents naming the child in question and/or information regarding all parent(s) or legal guardian(s).

Relationship of the applicant parent with the other parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s)

Indicate your current relationship with the other parent: single (no relationship), common law, married, separated, divorced or widowed. Indicate the date of marriage to the other parent, if applicable. Additional information or documentation may be requested.

Children in foster care or undergoing an adoption process in Canada

If the child is in foster care or undergoing an adoption process in Canada, you must also complete one (1) of the following forms: PPTC 463A, PPTC 463B or PPTC 463C, Additional Information for children in foster care and children undergoing an adoption process in Canada, available online at Canada.ca/passport.

Deceased parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s)

If any of the other parents or legal guardians are deceased, you must enclose with the application the original or an official copy of the death certificate(s) issued by a provincial or territorial vital statistics office or the equivalent abroad. When completing section 2 on the application form, you must provide as much information on the deceased parent(s) and/or legal guardians as possible.

Additional documentation (for example, marriage certificate, legal change of name certificate, etc) may be required to link the name(s) of parents or legal guardian(s) from the proof of parentage document to the name(s) identified in section 2 of the application form or in other submitted documentation.

L PREVIOUS CANADIAN TRAVEL DOCUMENT

Enclose any Canadian travel document (passport, certificate of identity or refugee travel document) that is not expired and was issued to the child in their current name or any other name. If the travel document's expiry date is more than twelve (12) months from the date the application is submitted, provide a written explanation as to why you are applying at this time. Should the Passport Program not be satisfied that you have an acceptable reason for applying early, your application for the child's passport may be refused.

M PROOF OF CANADIAN CITIZENSHIP

Important: A Canadian provincial or territorial birth certificate does not constitute an acceptable proof of Canadian Citizenship if, at the time of your child's birth in Canada, one or both of the parents was or were employed in Canada by a foreign government or international agency and neither parent was a Canadian citizen or permanent resident. See subsection 3(2) of the Citizenship Act for more information. You may also request a formal assessment by submitting an application for a citizenship certificate to Immigration, Refugee and Citizenship Canada (IRCC). For more details, visit the IRCC website at Canada.ca/citizenship.

The original proof of Canadian citizenship (or a copy of a citizenship certificate issued on or after February 1, 2012) that you submit with the child's application will be returned to you. Additional information may be requested to confirm your citizenship.

Canadian provincial or territorial certificate of birth

Only official birth documents issued by the vital statistics office in the child's province or territory of birth in Canada are accepted. Certain exceptions may apply. Certain Canadian provinces and territories issue other documents that will also be accepted as proof of Canadian citizenship. Visit Canada.ca/passport for more information.

Certificate of Canadian citizenship

Commemorative certificates of citizenship are not accepted as proof of citizenship. If you require a Certificate of Canadian citizenship for the child, visit the IRCC website at Canada.ca/citizenship.

N DECLARATION OF GUARANTOR

A guarantor is a person other than the applicant parent or legal guardian who can confirm the applicant's identity, has knowledge of the child, and may be called upon to confirm personal information. - be accessible to the Passport Program for verification; the Passport Program reserves the right to request a new guarantor.

You or your guarantor can complete this section with the guarantor's information, with the exception of the four fields in bold which must be completed by your guarantor.

The guarantor must perform the following two (2) tasks free of charge:

1. Complete or validate the information entered in the section 6 - Declaration of Guarantor. 2. Write "I certify this to be a true likeness of (child's name)" on the back of one (1) of the child's photos and sign it.
 - currently work and/or reside within the area of accreditation served by the Government of Canada office abroad where the application is submitted; and
 - be currently registered/licensed with the appropriate local authority to practice one (1) of the following professions in the United States:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dentist • Medical doctor • Dean or head of university or college • Judge • Lawyer or notary 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Notary public • Pharmacist • Veterinarian • Police officer • Signing officer of a bank or trust company, or of a financial institution that offers a full range of banking services (cash withdrawals, deposits, savings)

The above list is not a recognition or endorsement by the Passport Program of professional status or superior qualifications.

A guarantor from the eligible list of occupations does not need to be a Canadian citizen.

Important: The applicant cannot help the guarantor in performing their duties. If the guarantor needs help they can contact the Passport Program (see section I).

If you have not known an eligible guarantor for at least two (2) years, complete form PPTC 132, Statutory Declaration in Lieu of Guarantor for Canadians Applying for a Travel Document, available at any passport service location in Canada or any Government of Canada office abroad. The form must be completed at your expense before a person who is authorized by law to administer an oath or solemn affirmation. This may delay the processing time of the passport.

O PRIVACY NOTICE STATEMENT

Personal information provided on this form is collected by Immigration, Refugees, and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) under the authority of the Canadian Passport Order. The personal information provided will be used for the purpose of processing applications, determining entitlement to passport services and administering passport services. In the same context, the guarantor's personal information is subject to verification and security queries to determine whether the individual meets the guarantor requirements. Personal information may be collected from and/or disclosed to other federal government institutions, provincial/territorial governments, foreign governments, investigative bodies and/or law enforcement for the purpose of validating identity, determining current and ongoing entitlement to passport services and administering or enforcing any law or carrying out a lawful investigation.

Personal information may also be used for purposes including research, statistics, quality assurance, program and policy evaluation, internal audit, compliance, risk management, strategy development and reporting. Failure to complete the form in full may result in a delay or the application not being processed. If you are not satisfied with the manner in which IRCC handles your personal information, you may exercise your right to file a complaint to the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada. The collection, use, disclosure and retention of your personal information is further described in IRCC's Personal Information Bank – IRCC PPU 081 and IRCC PPU 082.

P CANADIAN PASSPORT PHOTO INSTRUCTIONS

You must submit two (2) identical and unaltered photo prints with each passport application. Third party photo software and digital photo altering applications are not acceptable in the submission of photos to the passport program.

More information is available at Canada.ca/passport-photos.

The photos must:

- be taken in person by a commercial photographer;
- be professionally printed on plain, high quality photographic paper (photos printed at home are not acceptable);
- be clear, sharp and in focus; in colour or black and white;
- show a neutral facial expression (no smiling, mouth closed) and looking straight at the camera, with eyes open and clearly visible;
- have uniform lighting—no shadows, glare or flash reflections;
- show a full front view of the face and top of the shoulders squared to the camera (face and shoulders centered in the photo, head not tilted or turned);
- reflect natural skin tone and be taken against a plain white or light coloured background with enough contrast between the background, facial features and clothing, so that your features appear clearly against the background;
- be originals that have not been altered in any way and not taken from an existing photo;
- be taken within the last six (6) months from the date the application is submitted and reflect the current appearance of the child;
- if you cannot meet these requirements for medical reasons, please provide a written explanation.

The following must appear on the back of one photo

- The name and complete address of the photo studio (not a P.O. Box) and the date the photo was taken. The photographer may use a stamp or handwrite this information (stick-on labels are not acceptable).
- The guarantor's signature. Note: If you are using the PPTC 132, Statutory Declaration in Lieu of Guarantor for Canadians Applying for a Travel Document (see section N), the signing official must also sign the back of the photo.
- The statement "I certify this to be a true likeness of (name of child, written by guarantor)".

Additional information

- Prescription glasses may be worn in photos as long as there is no glare and the eyes are clearly visible.
- The red-eye effect, tinted glasses and sunglasses make the photos unacceptable.
- Hats and head coverings must not be worn, except for religious beliefs or medical reasons. The head covering and hair must not cast shadows on the face and the full face must be clearly visible.
- The photo must show the child's head and shoulders only. No hands should appear in the photo.
- The Passport Program, Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada recognizes that it is difficult to obtain a neutral expression from a newborn and will be tolerant in this respect.
- For newborn babies, the photo may be taken while the child is sitting in a car seat, as long as a white blanket is placed over the seat behind the child's head. There must be no shadows on the face or shoulders, around the ears or in the background.
- Natural looking wigs are acceptable.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION CONCERNING CHILDREN TRAVELLING ABROAD

For more information, visit international.gc.ca and travel.gc.ca/child.

Q TRAVELLING WITH CHILDREN OR CHILDREN TRAVELLING ALONE

Immigration authorities in most countries are increasingly vigilant when children cross international borders. Whether travelling alone or accompanied by an adult, each child travelling abroad must have an individual valid passport and may also require supporting documentation. Prior to any travel, you should contact the embassy or consulate of all countries the child will be visiting to inquire about entry requirements.

R DOCUMENTATION TO FACILITATE TRAVEL ABROAD

The following documents may be requested to support the entry of a child to another country:

- Birth certificate showing the names of both parents.
- Agreements and legal documents that refer to custody, decision-making responsibilities, access, parenting time and/or mobility.
- A letter of consent authorizing the child to travel alone, with only one parent or with someone other than the custodian or guardian, as the case may be. The child should have a letter from every person or organization with custodial rights, guardianship rights or, in Quebec only, parental authority. Global Affairs Canada recommends that the letter be certified, stamped or sealed by an official with the authority to administer an oath or solemn declaration.
- If one of the parents is deceased, the death certificate.

S DOCUMENTATION AND TIPS TO FACILITATE THE RETURN TO CANADA

The following tips may help to avoid delays when a child is returning to Canada:

- Make sure you carry proper identification for yourself and any children travelling with you to help confirm your legal right or authorization to enter Canada upon your return.
- If you have custody or decision-making responsibility of the child, carry copies of documents that specify your custody rights.
- If you are not the legal guardian of the child, carry a letter of permission or authorization giving you custody or decision-making responsibility when entering Canada. When one parent is travelling with a child, a letter from the other parent can also facilitate the return of both the parent and the child. The letter should also contain telephone numbers at which the parents or legal guardians can be contacted.
- If you are travelling with a group, make sure you are in the same vehicle as the child you are accompanying when arriving at a border crossing.
- Have the child memorize a telephone number to call in case of emergency.

T CUSTODY INFORMATION

Custody or parenting arrangements in Canada may not be recognized in another country. In extreme cases, the child may not be able to leave the country visited. Before leaving on a trip, you are advised to check with the embassy or consulate of the country or countries the child will be visiting to determine the documentation relating to custody or decision-making responsibilities over the child that may be requested.
