DOCUMENT CHECKLIST
APPLICATION FOR A CITIZENSHIP CERTIFICATE (PROOF OF CITIZENSHIP)

Send the following documents with your application. Check each box once you enclose the item.

Failure to provide a fully completed application form or the necessary documents will result in the return of your application. If you are sending more than one application (for example, family members), and one of the applications is incomplete, all the applications will be returned to you.

If you are applying using the paper application, provide clear and legible, high quality, colour copies of your documents.

If you are using the online application, you must upload high resolution, colour digital or scanned images of your documents.

Note: This Document Checklist must be included in the envelope with all paper applications that are submitted by mail. If you are completing your application online the system will create an electronic Document Checklist that is personalized for you. You may still use this one for reference.

Note: You must provide an English or French translation of all documents that are in another language, and an affidavit from the person who completed the translation.

Required Additional Documents

Identify the scenario below that best describes your situation and provide the supporting documents listed.

Note: As set out in the Citizenship Act and the Citizenship Regulations, No. 2, we may ask you for further information or documents when processing your application.

SCENARIO 1.
You were previously issued a:

- Canadian citizenship certificate, or
- Canadian naturalization certificate (you were granted Canadian citizenship), or
- Certificate of Registration of Birth Abroad (RBA), or
- Certificate of Retention of Canadian Citizenship, or
- British naturalization certificate issued in Canada or in Newfoundland and Labrador

Please provide:

- all original citizenship/naturalization certificates (including any pink transmission copies), if applicable to you
- your Registration of Birth Abroad certificate (RBA document, issued prior to February 15, 1977), if applicable to you
- your Retention of Canadian Citizenship certificate, if applicable to you

SCENARIO 2.
Paper applications only
You were born in Canada and you have never had a citizenship certificate.

Please provide:

- your Canadian birth certificate, issued by the appropriate provincial/territorial authority in Canada
- proof of other nationalities acquired by you and your Canadian parent before February 15, 1977, if applicable to you
SCENARIO 3.

You (or the minor you are applying for) was born outside Canada to a Canadian parent, and never had a:

- Canadian citizenship certificate, or
- Certificate of Registration of Birth Abroad (RBA), or
- Certificate of Retention of Canadian Citizenship.

Please provide:

- your country specific birth certificate displaying the name of your Canadian parent(s), issued by the appropriate government authority in the country where you were born.

- proof that at least one of your parents (legal parent at birth or biological parent) is a Canadian citizen, such as:
  - parent's provincial/territorial birth certificate, or
  - parent's Canadian citizenship/naturalization certificate, or
  - parent's Certificate of Registration of Birth Abroad (RBA) or Certificate of Retention of Canadian Citizenship
  - parent's British naturalization certificate, issued in Canada or Newfoundland and Labrador
  - any other evidence that your parent is a Canadian citizen, such as those described in Scenarios 4 and 5 below

- proof of other nationalities acquired by you and your Canadian parent before February 15, 1977, if applicable to you

- an explanation why your Canadian parent (legal parent at birth or biological parent) is not listed on your country specific birth certificate.

- an explanation why your country specific birth certificate was changed, replaced or you aren’t sure and you didn’t have enough space in section 6.

Note: On April 17, 2009, the Citizenship Act was amended to include a first generation limit on claims of citizenship by descent through a Canadian parent. If this is your first application for a citizenship certificate, and you were born outside Canada in the second or subsequent generation, this limitation may apply to you, even if you provide the documents specified in Scenario 3. For more information, refer to the Amendments to the Citizenship Act section of the Instruction Guide.
