Guardianship Documents

- If you have a guardian who we should be corresponding with, please provide documents showing guardianship. This could include a power of attorney document, judicial court order, an affidavit, or other documentation proving guardianship.

Note:

- If you are between 18 and 54 years of age and are unable to demonstrate that you meet certain criteria of the citizenship requirements due to compassionate grounds (language requirements or showing you have adequate knowledge of the rights and responsibilities of Canadian citizenship by writing the citizenship test), you can apply for a waiver. You have to provide supporting evidence.
- If you are 14 years of age and older and are unable to understand the significance of taking the oath of citizenship due to mental disability, you can apply for a waiver. You have to provide supporting evidence.
- To apply for one or more of these waivers, please include the following:

 Waiver Request Form (CIT 0116)

- If you're applying for a waiver of language and/or knowledge, please tell us about your circumstances in this form.

 Medical Opinion Form for Citizenship Waivers (CIT 0547)

- If you're applying for a waiver of the requirements of language and/or knowledge due to a medical condition, please have this form completed by a medical professional licensed to practice in Canada.
- If you're applying for a waiver of the oath, please have this form completed by a medical professional licensed to practice in Canada.

 Other supporting documents for waivers

- If you have additional documentation that should be considered with your waiver request, such as test results or affidavits, please include them with your application.
- A waiver request does not guarantee it will be approved. Each request is assessed on a case-by-case basis.
