Red and Black Series Transferred to Public Archives

        I am attaching for your information a listing of files belonging to the Red and Black Series which are still on charge to officials of your division.

        As you are aware, an agreement was reached earlier in the year with the Dominion Archivist, Dr. W.K. Lamb, whereby all files of the Red and Black Series, which were transferred to the Records Center in 1960 for storage purposes, would be released in the custody of the Dominion Archives, and the move being completed in October 1963.
During our discussions, it was understood that under no circumstances would files belonging to this series be retained by officials of this Branch considering that a new control index was necessary to deal with the numerous inquiries received from the Claims Commission, and only subject to all of the files and indices being in their possession.

        In order that the Manuscript Division of the Public Archives may proceed on this project involving approximately 24,000 subject files, I would invite your co-operation in having the remaining files shown on the list referred to the Central Registry for onward transmission to the Dominion Archives in accordance with our decision.

        Any information on these files may be obtained by calling Mr. K. Johnson of the Manuscript Division on local 2-5756.
