

CANADA LABOUR CODE
PART II
OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

TCT logistics applicant

and

Andrew McKechnie
health and safety officer

Decision No. 02-012
June 13 , 2002

This case was decided by Michèle Beauchamp, appeals officer.

[1] This case concerns an appeal made on May 18, 2001 by A.J. J. Kaiser, Loss Prevention Manager, on behalf of TCT logistics, a business operating in Winnipeg, Manitoba. The appeal was submitted under subsection 146(1) of the Canada Labour Code, Part II, following a one-item direction issued on April 24, 2001 by health and safety officer Andrew McKechnie after an inspection of the work place.

[2] On February 27, 2002, the Canada Appeals Office on Occupational Health and Safety was advised by Mr. Kaiser that TCT Logistics was withdrawing its appeal because the business had filed for bankruptcy.

[3] As the appeals officer responsible for this case, I confirm that TCT logistics has withdrawn its appeal. The case is closed.

Michèle Beauchamp
Appeals Officer

SUMMARY OF APPEALS OFFICER'S DECISION

Decision No.: 02-012

Applicant: TCT logistics

KEY WORDS: Appeal

Provisions:
Code: 146(1)

SUMMARY:

The applicant appealed a one-item direction issued under subsection 145(1) of the Canada Labour Code, Part II. The applicant later advised the Canada Appeals Office on Occupational Health and Safety that it was withdrawing its appeal because the business had filed for bankruptcy. The appeals officer confirmed that the appeal was withdrawn.