SECTION ONE: MISSION

The mission of the Canadian Forces Aircrew Selection Centre (CFASC) is to select military aircrew who have the aptitude to successfully lead, plan, and execute the application of Aerospace Power across the full spectrum of military operations; from domestic peacetime support to full combat operations abroad.

PROCESS

All Pilot, Aerospace Control Officer (AEC), and Air Combat Systems Officer (ACSO) candidates must attend aircrew selection at CFASC, located at Canadian Forces Base (CFB) / 8 Wing Trenton, and meet the minimum standards on the aircrew selection testing for which they are applying. All candidates will be tested for all three occupations. Candidates are encouraged to arrive at CFASC well-rested, alert, and healthy, as the aircrew selection testing is cognitively demanding.

SECTION TWO: PREPARATION

The computer based aptitude testing involves the measurement of a candidate's abilities in a number of cognitive domains that have been linked to job and training success specific to the occupation(s) of choice. Such domains include strategic task management, perceptual processing, short term memory and capacity, spatial reasoning, symbolic reasoning, central information processing, and psychomotor abilities. Each cognitive domain includes a number of aptitude tests specific to that domain. Such aptitude tests include measures of the following abilities (see the Aircrew Selection Testing – Candidate Guide for more detailed information):

1. Simple mental math (division, subtraction, multiplication and addition);
2. Problem solving (time/speed/distance formula and fuel consumption);
3. Short term memory (digit and letter recall);
4. Estimation of angles and bearings;
5. Multi-tasking;
6. Aircraft instrument comprehension;
7. Spatial reasoning (interpreting 3D from 2D representations and vice versa);
8. Reasoning/logic (systems);
9. Psychomotor ability (hand-eye-foot and hand-eye coordination); and
10. Vigilance, attention to detail, and situational awareness.

All candidates must read the Candidate Guide and watch the video at the following links:

SECTION THREE: STANDARDS AND REQUIREMENTS

WHILE AT CFASC

Candidates attending aircrew selection should treat this assessment process as an extension of the job interview. As such, all candidates, regardless of entry plan, will wear smart casual civilian clothing (no rips/holes). The following items of clothing are NOT permitted during working hours: gym clothes, shorts, t-shirts, flip-flops or sandals. Flat-soled footwear is highly recommended. CFASC is a scent free environment; cologne and perfume are NOT permitted.

OFF-DUTY HOURS

There will be a minimal amount of free time for candidates while at CFASC; candidates are expected to maintain a professional manner both on and off the base.

ADDITIONAL ITEMS

Candidates are also encouraged to bring toiletries in addition to their civilian clothing. Fitness gear is optional. It is recommended that candidates bring an extra upper layer of clothing (ex. long sleeve shirt, sweater, etc.), as the testing lab is temperature controlled and some may find it cool.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

As CFASC is located on a Canadian Forces (CF) base, all candidates MUST be in possession of a photo ID to access certain areas. As well, candidates MUST have access to a copy of these Joining Instructions (JIs) at all time. It is highly recommended that anyone accompanying the candidate or providing transportation to the candidate should have a photo ID and a copy of these JIs in order to be admitted onto DND property.

PLEASE BE ADVISED THAT AS OF 22 SEPTEMBER 2021, CERTAIN ESTABLISHMENTS WITHIN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO, INCLUDING THE YUKON GALLEY, WILL REQUIRE PROOF OF VACCINATION.

The Personal Emergency Notification and Non-Disclosure Agreement must be completed and signed prior to your arrival at CFASC.

The COVID Questionnaire will be filled out DAILY and submitted prior to entering the CFASC building.

Candidates will be provided with two (2) disposable non-medical face masks. Candidates will wear the issued face masks at designated times throughout the testing process. Candidates will abide by all 8 Wg Trenton's COVID guidelines.

If a candidate develops COVID-like symptoms or answers 'YES' to any of the questions on the COVID Questionnaire, the candidate is to follow the directions in the COVID Advisory and Symptoms Procedure.

All candidates must be issued a travel claim by their unit or recruiting centre. This is their authority for undertaking travel as aircrew candidates.
