

Esquimalt Royal Roads Anchorage - Welding and Burning Permit

No welding or burning shall commence until permission has been obtained from the Harbour Master's Office.

Reference: Natural and Man-made Harbour Navigation and Use Regulations Section 5

Circle

1.	Does the ship/company have a current welding and burning policy in place?	Y	N	N/A
2.	Are there ready, portable fire extinguishers in working order on site?	Y	N	N/A
3.	Is the welding/burning equipment in working order, good condition, and tested safe for their intended use?	Y	N	N/A
4.	Is the area free of combustible materials?	Y	N	N/A
5.	Are personnel trained to respond appropriately to emergency fire hazards/situations on site?	Y	N	N/A
6.	Has fire watch personnel received, as a minimum, basic training?	Y	N	N/A
7.	Is the space properly ventilated?	Y	N	N/A
8.	Is there a current and applicable Gas Free Certificate?	Y	N	N/A
9.	Has the ship's Agent been informed of the intended work?	Y	N	N/A
10.	Do personnel know how to contact local emergency services in case of fire?	Y	N	N/A

Date
Name of Ship
Name of Ship's Local Agency
Location of Ship
Estimated Start Time
Location of Job
Estimated Completion Time
Welder (Signature)
Signed (Master / Ch Eng / Ch Offr)
Signed (Port of Esquimalt)

Please e-mail the completed form to esqkhmehma@forces.gc.ca
Emergency Contact Numbers 24/7 - 250-363-2160 / 250-363-5848