

Letter written by Sergeant Collis while in England to his daughter Joan.

Source: Family of Sergeant Collis.

Transcription:

Royal Hamilton Light Infantry, Canadian Army Overseas

Darling Daughter Joan,

Hello sweet how are you getting along at school? Don't forget that you've got to pass for Grandad's sake. It will make him very happy if you do.

There's something that should make you happy. I've just met your Great Aunt May and Aunt Peggy and they are both red headed like you.

Your Great Granny is very proud of you. She didn't know who you were until I told her.

Well remember to be good and do what Grandad tells you.

Lots of Love,

Your Father

Jock